

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-64526-3 - Using Newspapers in the Classroom

Paul Sanderson

Table of Contents

More information

Contents

Acknowledgements	xii
Introduction	1

1	Headlines	19
1.1	Words	19
1.2	Headline halves	21
1.3	Headline hangman	23
1.4	Ask the right question	24
1.5	Frames	25
1.6	One step at a time	26
1.7	Unlocking headlines	28
1.8	Headline features	30
1.9	Ambiguity	31
1.10	Categories	34
1.11	Me in headlines	35
1.12	Personal connections	37
1.13	Headline combinations	38
1.14	Call my bluff	40
1.15	Headline charades	41
1.16	Headline fantasy	43

2	Articles	47
2.1	Categorising articles	47
2.2	What, who, where, when, how, why?	48
2.3	Unpacking sentences	50
2.4	Forming groups	52
2.5	News flash	53
2.6	Strip cloze	55
2.7	Putting it back together	57
2.8	Mastermind	58
2.9	Three-minute warning	59
2.10	Exchanging the news	60
2.11	Predictive listening	61
2.12	Margins of error	63

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-64526-3 - Using Newspapers in the Classroom

Paul Sanderson

Table of Contents

More informationContents

- 2.13 Pay-offs 64
- 2.14 Putting in the paragraphs 66
- 2.15 Crossheads 67
- 2.16 Order of preference 69
- 2.17 Ranking articles 70
- 2.18 Real-life interviews 72
- 2.19 Press conference 73
- 2.20 Filling in the gaps 74
- 2.21 Fleshing out text 75
- 2.22 News in brief 78
- 2.23 Overseas correspondents 79
- 2.24 Favourite phrases 80
- 2.25 Change the news 81
- 2.26 Common denominators 82
- 2.27 Potted biographies 83
- 2.28 Fillers 87
- 2.29 Spot the differences 88

3 Photographs 90

- 3.1 Jumbled captions 90
- 3.2 Predicting photographs 91
- 3.3 Famous faces 93
- 3.4 Appearances 94
- 3.5 Thoughts 96
- 3.6 Vocabulary review connections 97
- 3.7 Photo stories 98
- 3.8 Famous for a day 99
- 3.9 Stories 100
- 3.10 Headline connections 101
- 3.11 Moving pictures 102
- 3.12 Picture this story 104
- 3.13 Putting the picture in the story 105
- 3.14 Student-generated worksheets 107

4 Advertisements 110

- 4.1 Quick turn 110
- 4.2 Classifying ads 114
- 4.3 Role-play ads 119
- 4.4 Small ads abbreviations 121
- 4.5 For sale 123
- 4.6 Shopping for a friend 125
- 4.7 Vocabulary posters 127

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-64526-3 - Using Newspapers in the Classroom

Paul Sanderson

Table of Contents

More informationContents

- 4.8 The price is right 129
- 4.9 Salaries 130
- 4.10 Looking for a partner 134
- 4.11 Choosing holidays 138
- 4.12 Searching for a house 142
- 4.13 House-hunting 143
- 4.14 Reducing ads 144
- 4.15 Adjectives 145
- 4.16 Advertising phrases 146
- 4.17 Favourite jobs 148
- 4.18 Job interviews 150
- 4.19 Job descriptions 151
- 4.20 Charity appeals 152

5 Horoscopes 157

- 5.1 Horoscope dictation 157
- 5.2 Matching star signs 159
- 5.3 Make my day 160
- 5.4 Pinpoint predictions 161
- 5.5 Miming horoscopes 162
- 5.6 Learning by association 164

6 Problem Page letters 167

- 6.1 The hole problem 167
- 6.2 Why don't you ...? Yes, but ... 169
- 6.3 Unfinished business 174
- 6.4 Debating the issue 176
- 6.5 Problem Page role-plays 177
- 6.6 Right to reply 178
- 6.7 The other side of the story 180
- 6.8 Dear Teacher ... 181

7 TV guides 184

- 7.1 A great day's viewing 184
- 7.2 Television programmes survey 188
- 7.3 TV blurb 191
- 7.4 Original titles 192
- 7.5 Programme titles 194

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-64526-3 - Using Newspapers in the Classroom

Paul Sanderson

Table of Contents

More informationContents

8	Cartoons and strip cartoons	196
8.1	Reading aloud in role	196
8.2	Acting out cartoons	199
8.3	Matching captions	200
8.4	Strip cartoon stories	201
8.5	Cartoon drills	202
8.6	Strip cartoon narratives	205
8.7	What makes this English?	206
8.8	Is this funny?	210
9	Weather forecasts	212
9.1	Predicting the weather	212
9.2	Matching weather forecasts	214
9.3	Weather-map dictation	216
9.4	Temperature drills	217
9.5	Writing forecasts	219
10	The whole newspaper	221
10.1	Newspaper reading corner	221
10.2	Where's the story about ...?	222
10.3	Find someone who ...	223
10.4	Vocabulary race	225
10.5	Matching contents	227
10.6	Newspaper language race	228
10.7	Page numbers	231
10.8	Looking for numbers	232
10.9	Pattern banks	233
10.10	Happy news	235
10.11	Personal collages	238
10.12	Topic banks	243
10.13	Special interest groups	244
10.14	Looking for repeated language	245
10.15	Newspaper reading habits	247
10.16	Newspaper preferences	250
10.17	Comparisons	251
10.18	And I quote	252
10.19	Newspaper puzzles	255
10.20	Ethics	256
	Appendix 1 Stylistic and structural features of newspaper headlines	259
	Appendix 2 Web sites	264

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-64526-3 - Using Newspapers in the Classroom
Paul Sanderson
Table of Contents
More information

Contents

Appendix 3 Abbreviations used in classified advertisements 266

Bibliography 270

Index 271