Prepositions

in

under

behind

between

beside

Point to the first picture. Encourage children to say what they see. Then say on. Repeat with the other pictures. You can use small toys to demonstrate the prepositions, encouraging children to copy. You can also review the animals and have children pretend they are animals as they mime the prepositions.

