

Index

- academic style, CALP 20, 35, 37
- Academic Word List 141–3
- activating
 - challenges for teachers 30
 - CLIL checklist 15, 18–19
 - geography teaching example 6
 - Zone of Proximal Development (ZPD) 30
- activating, practical activities 85–112
 - brainstorming 91–2
 - Finish the sentence 85–6
 - Graphic organisers 87–8, 89–90, 91–2
 - Guessing the lesson 93–4
 - Hands-on discovering 95–6
 - KWL (know, want, learn) grid 97–8
 - Newsy newspapers 99
 - Placemat activity 100–1
 - Quickest, most, best 102
 - Red and green circles (true and false) 103–4
 - Researching the lesson 105
 - Scrambled eggs (ordering, organising) 106–7
 - spider diagram 91–2
 - target practice (graphic organiser) 89–90
 - Venn diagrams 87–8
 - Vital visuals 108–10
 - Word wall 111–12
- activities
 - activating 85–112
 - assessment, review and feedback 229–69
 - focus on language 141–70
 - focus on speaking 171–200
 - focus on writing 201–28
 - guiding understanding 113–39
- Advice column 201–3
- affective challenges for CLIL learners 42
- Aliens (writing activity) 204–5
- art, design and technology 48–51
 - language of the subjects 48–9
 - sample language and content aims 51
 - sample text and comments 50
- assessment for learning (AFL), definition 38–9
- assessment of learning, definition 38
- Assessment questions 229–34
- assessment, review and feedback
 - challenges for teachers 37–9
 - CLIL checklist 18–19
 - history teaching example 9
 - speaking and writing 38–9
 - testing content and language 39
 - use of rubrics 39
- assessment, review and feedback, practical activities 229–69
 - Assessment questions 229–34
 - assessment criteria rubric 235–7
 - Complete a rubric 235–7
 - Correction code 238–40
 - Correction cards 241–4
 - First person revision 245–7
 - Group self-evaluation 248–9
 - Jigsaw rubric to assess speaking 250–3
 - Language feedback 254
 - Multiple intelligences (exploring) 255–9
 - Multiple intelligences (types of assessment) 260–1
 - Revision circles 266–7
 - Rewrite together 262–5
 - Stickers (guessing game) 268
 - Visual assessments 269–70
- Balloon debate 171–3
- Basic Interpersonal Communication Skills (BICS) 20, 35
- Bingo 144–5
- Bloom's new taxonomy of questions and tasks 31, 32–3
- bodily-physical intelligence 13–14
- brainstorming 21, 91–2
 - for writing 204–7
- bullet points 210
- business studies see economics and business studies
- CALP (Cognitive Academic Language Proficiency) 20, 35, 37
- CBLT (content-based language teaching) 4–5
- CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages) 30, 33, 36–7, 46–7 see also Appendix
- charts/tables 121, 123–4
- chunking of text 31
- citizenship teaching 46
- Class magazine 208–9
- CLIL (Content and Language Integrated Learning)
 - benefits for learners 11–14
 - benefits of integrating content and language 11–14
 - comparison with CBLT 4–5
 - comparison with immersion 4–5
 - definition 3
 - snapshots of practical activities 6–10

CLIL Activities

- CLIL (Content and Language Integrated Learning) (cont.)
 - teaching examples 6–10
 - teaching through another language 5
- CLIL learners
 - affective challenges 42
 - benefits of CLIL 11–14
 - challenges 41–5
 - cognitive development 11
 - communication skills development 11
 - cultural challenges 45
 - different learning styles 13–14
 - discourse-level challenges 42–4
 - emotional challenges 42
 - intercultural awareness 13
 - learning the ‘culture’ of a subject 13
 - linguistic challenges 42–5
 - making personal meaning of new material 12
 - meaningful interaction 12
 - motivation from CLIL 11
 - multimodal language input 12
 - personal idiom file (PIF) 34
 - preparation for studying in another language 13
 - preparation for working in other countries 13
 - rate of language progress 12
 - sentence-level challenges 44
 - vocabulary notebook 34
 - word-level challenges 44–5
- CLIL teachers
 - appeal to multiple intelligences 13–14
 - aspects of the teacher’s role 14–15
 - benefits of CLIL 14
 - catering for various learning styles 13–14
 - challenges in CLIL 30–9
 - collaboration between language and subject teachers 21–9
 - confidence in speaking in English 35
 - confidence in writing in English 37
 - How ‘CLIL’ are you? checklist 15–19
 - new roles 19–21
 - teaching in another language 5
 - team teaching 10, 21
 - see also* language teachers; subject teachers
- cloze text exercises 133
- Cognitive Academic Language Proficiency (CALP) 20, 35, 37
- cognitive development in CLIL learners 11
- cognitive learning theories 11
- collaboration in CLIL rubric 24–9
- Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) 30, 33, 36–7, 46–7 see also Appendix
- communication skills in CLIL learners 11
- Complete a rubric 235–7
- constructivist theories of learning 12
- Content and Language Integrated Learning see CLIL
- content-based language teaching (CBLT) 4–5
- Correction cards 241–4
- Correction code 238–40
- cultural awareness through CLIL 13
- cultural challenges for CLIL learners 45
- Describe and draw 174
- design see art, design and technology
- discourse-level challenges for learners 42–4
- domestic science teaching 46
- drama teaching see music and drama
- economics and business studies 52–5
 - language of the subjects 52–3
 - sample language and content aims 55
 - sample text and comments 54
- effective talk concept 35
- emotional challenges for CLIL learners 42
- Expert groups 113–15
- explaining, Living graphs 181–2
- Eyewitness activity 175–6
- fat questions 135–6
- feedback see assessment, review and feedback
- Finish the sentence 85–6
- First person revision 245–7
- fishbone maps 121, 123
- flowcharts 121, 125, 211
- focus on language
 - challenges for teachers 33–4
 - checklist for lesson materials 33
 - CLIL checklist 16, 18–19
 - dealing with new vocabulary 34
 - grammar 34
 - helping learners to remember vocabulary 34
 - science teaching example 7
- focus on language, practical activities 141–70
 - Academic Word List 141–3
 - Bingo 144–5
 - Guess the word 146
 - Hot seat (questioning) 147
 - Matching trios 148–9
 - Mind maps 150–1
 - Mnemonics 152
 - Noticing (language features) 153–4
 - Odd one out 155
 - Personal vocabulary file or glossary 156–7
 - Ranking 158
 - Snake (definitions/questions) 159–61
 - Sorting 162–3
 - Taboo word game 164
 - Vocabulary posters 165
 - Vocabulary strategies 166
 - Word association 167–8
 - Word puzzle 169
 - Word stories 170

Index

- focus on speaking
 - Basic Interpersonal Communication Skills (BICS) 35
 - biology teaching example 8
 - challenges for teachers 34–6
 - CLIL checklist 17, 18–19
 - developing CALP in speaking 35–6
 - encouraging the use of English 34–5
 - importance for CLIL learners 12
 - production scaffolds 36
 - transformation scaffolds 36
- focus on speaking, practical activities 171–200
 - Balloon debate 171–3
 - Describe and draw 174
 - Eyewitness 175–6
 - Information gaps 177–80
 - Living graphs 181–2
 - Problems, problems 183
 - Prove it 184–5
 - Ranking cards 186
 - Role play for job interview 187–8
 - Rubric jigsaw for presentations 189–94
 - Speak for an audience 195–6
 - Speaking frames 197–8
 - Think, pair, share 199
 - Vivid visuals 200
- focus on writing
 - challenges for teachers 36–8
 - CLIL checklist 17, 18–19
 - designing writing activities 36
 - developing CALP in writing 37
 - gapped texts 36
 - genres 36
 - geography teaching example 8–9
 - helping learners to get started 37
 - importance for CLIL learners 12
 - organising ideas 37
 - paragraphs 37, 221–2
- focus on writing, practical activities 201–28
 - Advice column 201–3
 - Aliens 204–5
 - brainstorming for writing 206–7
 - Class magazine 208–9
 - describing an illustration 227–8
 - focused free writing (brainstorming) 207
 - for different audiences 224–5
 - Framing writing 210–16
 - I am a ... 217–18
 - Instructions 219
 - Lost in conversion 220
 - narrative 217–18
 - paragraphs 37, 221–2
 - posters (brainstorming for writing) 206
 - Questions to paragraph 221–2
 - Real-life writing 224–5
 - Recreate a text 223
 - Storyboard 226
 - Visuals 227–8
 - writing frames 210–16
- for and against grid 210, 215
- fossilisation of the learning process 12
- Framing writing 210–16
- gap-filling activities 36, 133, 141–3
- gapped text creation 141
- Gardner, Howard 13–14
- genres 36
- geography 56–9
 - language of geography 56–7
 - sample language and content aims 59
 - sample text and comments 58
- Gist statements 116–17
- glossary, personal vocabulary list 156–7
- Graffiti (posters activity) 118–19
- grammar 34
- graphic organisers
 - fishbone maps 121, 123
 - flowcharts 121, 125
 - for activating 87–92
 - for guiding understanding 120–5
 - Lost in conversion 220
 - spider diagram 91–2
 - spider maps 121, 122
 - tables/charts 121, 123–4
 - target practice 89–90
 - timelines 121, 124
 - tree maps 121, 123, 125
 - Venn diagrams 87–8, 121, 123
- Group self-evaluation 248–9
- guessing
 - Guess the word 146
 - Guessing the lesson 93–4
 - Stickers guessing game 268
- guiding understanding
 - challenges for teachers 30–3
 - CLIL checklist 16, 18–19
 - history teaching example 6
- guiding understanding, practical activities 113–39
 - cloze exercises 133
 - Expert groups 113–15
 - gap fill exercises 133
 - Gist statements 116–17
 - Graffiti 118–19
 - Graphic organisers 120–5
 - Interactive PowerPoint® 126–7
 - Interview as input 128–9
 - Jumbles 130
 - Learner-generated questions 131
 - Listening questions 132
 - Mind the gap 133
 - Running commentary 134

CLIL Activities

- guiding understanding, practical activities (cont.)
 - Skinny and fat questions and thinking skills 135–6
 - Subheadings 137
 - Understanding new words 138
 - What was the question? 139
- Hands-on discovering 95–6
- higher-order thinking skills (HOTS) 16, 31, 32, 34, 36–7
- history 60–3
 - language of history 60–1
 - sample language and content aims 63
 - sample text and comments 62
- Hot seat (questions activity) 147
- I am a ... (narrative activity) 217–18
- illustrations/images
 - describing 227–8
 - drawing from a description 227–8
 - Vital visuals activity 108–10
 - Vivid visuals 200
- immersion, comparison with CLIL and CBLT 4–5
- information and communication technology (ICT) 64–7
 - language of ICT 64–5
 - sample language and contents aims 67
 - sample text and comments 66
- Information gaps 177–80
- input, multimodal 12, 31 see also guiding understanding
- input theories of second language acquisition 12
- Inspiration software 151
- Instructions 219
- Interactive PowerPoint® 126–7
- intercultural awareness through CLIL 13
- Internet, online readability tests 30
- interpersonal intelligence 9, 13–14
- interviews
 - Eyewitness 175–6
 - Interview as input 128–9
 - job interview role play 187–8
- intrapersonal intelligence 9, 13–14
- Jigsaw rubric to assess speaking 250–3
- job interview role play 187–8
- Jumbles activity (ordering, reasoning) 130
- KWL (know, want, learn) grid 97–8
- language see focus on language
- Language feedback 254
- language teachers
 - collaboration with subject teachers 14, 21–9 see also specific activities
 - new roles in CLIL 21–9
 - see also* CLIL teachers
- Learner-generated questions 131
- learners see CLIL learners
- learning styles 13–14, 96
- linguistic challenges for CLIL learners 42–5
- linguistic intelligence 13–14
- listening
 - Listening questions 132
 - Recreate a text 223
- Living graphs (reasoning, explaining) 181–2
- logical-mathematical intelligence 13–14
- Lost in conversion 220
- lower-order thinking skills (LOTS) 16, 32
- matching exercises 144–5
- Matching trios 148–9
- maths 68–71
 - language of maths 68–9
 - sample language and content aims 71
 - sample text and comments 70
- Mind maps 150–1
- Mind the gap 133
- Mnemonics 152
- multimodal input 12, 31
- multiple intelligences 13–14
 - exploring 255–9
 - questionnaire 255, 257–9
 - theory of 13–14
 - types of assessment 260–1
- music and drama 72–5
 - language of music and drama 72–3
 - sample language and content aims 75
 - sample text and comments 74
- musical intelligence 13–14
- narrative 217–18
- naturalistic intelligence 13–14
- Newsy newspapers 99
- Noticing (language features) 153–4
- Odd one out 155
- online readability tests 30
- ordering/classifying activities 106–7
 - Jumbles 130
 - Ranking 158
 - Ranking cards 186
 - Scrambled eggs 106–7
 - Sorting 162–3
- output theory of language acquisition 12
- paragraphs 37, 221–2
- personal idiom file (PIF) 34
- Personal vocabulary file or glossary 156–7
- philosophy teaching 46
- physical education (PE) 76–9
 - language of PE 76–7
 - sample language and content aims 79
 - sample text and comments 78
- Placemat activity 100–1
- posters, brainstorming for writing 206

Index

- PowerPoint®, interactive presentation 126–7
- practical activities
 - activating 85–112
 - assessment, review and feedback 229–69
 - focus on language 141–70
 - focus on speaking 171–200
 - focus on writing 201–28
 - guiding understanding 113–39
- presentations 118–19
 - Rubric jigsaw for assessment 189–94
 - Speak for a specific audience 195–6
 - Vivid visuals 200
- Problems, problems (problem solving) 183
- production scaffolds 36
- Prove it 184–5
- questions for CLIL, Bloom's new taxonomy 31, 32–3
- questions activities
 - Hot seat 147
 - Information gaps 177–80
 - Interview as input 128–9
 - Learner-generated questions 131
 - Listening questions 132
 - Prove it 184–5
 - Questions to paragraph 221–2
 - skinny and fat questions 135–6
 - Snake activity 159–61
 - What was the question? 139
- Quickest, most, best (competitive activity) 102
- Ranking 158
- Ranking cards 186
- readability, online readability tests 30
- Real-life writing 224–5
- reception scaffolds 31
- Recreate a text 223
- Red and green circles (true and false statements) 103–4
- religious education 46
- Researching the lesson 105
- review see assessment, review and feedback
- Revision circles 266–7
- Rewrite together 262–5
- Role play, job interview 187–8
- rubrics
 - assessment criteria 235–7
 - collaboration in CLIL 24–9
 - Complete a rubric 235–7
 - definition 39
 - Jigsaw rubric to assess speaking 250–3
 - Rubric jigsaw for presentations 189–94
 - use in assessment, review and feedback 39
- Running commentary 134
- scaffolding 31, 36, 37, 125, 162, 201
- schools
 - benefits of CLIL 14
 - role in CLIL teacher collaboration 29
- science 80–3
 - language of science 80–1
 - sample language and content aims 83
 - sample text and comments 82
- Scrambled eggs activity (ordering, organising) 106–7
- second language learning theories 12
- self-assessment checklist 229–34
- self-evaluation 248–9
- sentence-level challenges for learners 44
- Skinny and fat questions and thinking skills 135–6
- Snake activity (definitions) 159–61
- social constructivist theories of learning 12
- socio-cultural theories of learning 13
- sociology 46
- Sorting 162–3
- Speak for a specific audience 195–6
- Speaking frames 197–8
- speaking see focus on speaking
- spider diagram 91–2, 210
- spider maps 121, 122
- Stickers guessing game 268
- Storyboard 226
- Subheadings activity 137
- subject pages 41–83
 - art, design and technology 48–51
 - CLIL in subject teaching 45–6
 - economics and business studies 52–5
 - features of 46–7
 - geography 56–9
 - history 60–3
 - how to use 46
 - information and communication technology (ICT) 64–7
 - maths 68–71
 - music and drama 72–5
 - physical education (PE) 76–9
 - science 80–3
- subject teachers
 - CLIL in subject teaching 45–6
 - collaboration among 14
 - collaboration with language teachers 14, 21–9 see also specific activities
 - developing learners' vocabulary 20
 - developing own language skills 19–20
 - facilitating learners' language 20
 - helping learners develop CALP 20
 - new roles for CLIL teaching 19–20
 - phases of development 19–20
 - teaching BICS 20
 - teaching in another language 5
 - teaching through another language 5
 - see also* CLIL teachers
- subjects, specialist language and 'culture' 13
- tables/charts 121, 123–4
- Taboo word game 164

CLIL Activities

- target practice (graphic organiser) 89–90
- tasks for CLIL, Bloom’s new taxonomy 31, 32–3
- teachers see CLIL teachers; language teachers; subject teachers
- team teaching 10, 21
- technology see art, design and technology
- Think, pair, share (speaking activity) 199
- timelines 121, 124, 210
- transformation scaffolds 36
- tree maps 121, 123, 125
- true and false statements, activating activity 103–4
- Understanding new words 138
- Venn diagrams 87–8, 121, 123
- Visual assessments 269–70
- visual-spatial intelligence 13–14
- visualisation, Vivid visuals 200
- Visuals (describing an illustration) 227–8
- Vital visuals activity 108–10
- Vivid visuals (illustration and speaking) 200
- vocabulary, understanding new words 138
- vocabulary notebook 34
- Vocabulary posters 165
- Vocabulary strategies 166
- What was the question? 139
- Word association 167–8
- word clouds 94
- word forms and patterns, vocabulary strategies 166
- word games, Taboo 164
- word-level challenges for learners 44–5
- Word puzzle 169
- Word stories 170
- Word wall 111–12
- Wordle 94
- writing see focus on writing
- Zone of Proximal Development (ZPD) 30