

Puzzle

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Experience

Better

Learning

Can you solve this puzzle?

Tips Using the Internet

When you go online, you can send and receive emails, or you can browse the Internet by using websites to look at or download information, pictures, music or podcasts. To navigate the Web, you need a browser - when you first access a site, you will see its home page, which will give you links to other parts of the site. Many people like to bookmark their favorite web pages. More and more people like to read or write a blog on a topic of interest to them - there are thousands to choose from. You can use your favorite search engine to find whatever you want.

Word Search

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Experience
Better
Learning

Can you guess which new words has the Internet introduced recently?

Tips Internet Words

1. All the blogs on the internet, and the people who write or read them
2. To lose your job because you have written something bad about it on a blog
3. Egosurfing - Searching for your own name on the Internet
4. A website for people who like a particular actor, television programme, etc
5. Flamer - Someone who sends an angry or insulting email
6. The words, abbreviations, etc that people use to communicate on the Internet
7. Online dating - A way of starting a romantic relationship on the Internet, by giving information about yourself or replying to someone else's information
8. Someone who leaves an intentionally annoying message on the Internet, in order to get attention or cause trouble
9. A video that you can download from the Internet and play on a computer or an MP3 player
10. An occasion when a group of people go online at the same time to study and discuss something
11. A magazine that is published on the Internet and not on paper

- | | |
|-----------------|------------------|
| 1. blogosphere | 7. online dating |
| 2. (get) dooced | 8. troll |
| 3. egosurfing | 9. vodcast |
| 4. fansite | 10. webinar |
| 5. flamer | 11. webzine |
| 6. netspeak | |

Cryptogram

Substitute the ciphers where each letter is replaced by a different letter to complete the challenge.

Tip for the hidden keyword

(vertical spaces with no ciphers)

He/She studied at University of Cambridge and was highly influential in the development of theoretical computer science, providing a formalisation of the concepts of algorithm.

Alan Turing

1 h a c k i n t o

2 l o g o f f

3 b a c k - u p

4 c o n n e c t u p

5 w i p e o u t

6 t y p e u p

7 p r i n t o u t

8 p i c k u p

9 s c r o l l d o w n

10 g o d o w n

General Tips Phrasal Verbs

1. to get into someone else's computer system without permission in order to find out information or do something illegal 2. to stop a computer being connected to a computer system, usually when you want to stop working 3. a copy of information that is held on computer, which is stored separately from the computer 4. to join or be joined with something else 5. to remove information stored on part of a computer [esp. Memory, hard disk] 6. to make a typed copy of a piece of text that is written by hand 7. to produce a printed copy of a document that has been written on a computer 8. to learn a new skill or language by practising it rather than being taught it 9. to move text or other information on a computer screen in order to view a different part of it 10. If a computer system goes down, it stops working.

