Unit 1, Exercise 3a

Narrator: Interactive Workbook 2

By Meredith Levy with Helen Hadkins, Samantha Lewis and Joanna Budden.

Published by Cambridge University Press 2011.

This recording is copyright.

Narrator: Unit 1, Exercise 3a. Listen to Nicole describing photos of three people. Tick the parts of the body you hear.

Nicole: This is a photo of my mother. She's sitting on a chair in the dining room at home. Her elbow is on the table and she's got her chin in her hand. She looks quite happy, but it isn't a very good photo because her eyes are closed.

I like this picture of my little sister Josie. She's learning to play the piano, but her fingers are small and it's difficult for her. When she tries to play, she always sticks out her tongue; can you see? She's wearing her favourite bracelet on her arm – it was a present from Grandma.

This is my friend, Antonio. He usually plays in the basketball team, but he isn't playing in this picture. You can see he's got a problem with his knee. He's got his favourite watch on his wrist, as usual. And he's wearing an earring in his left ear. His parents don't like it, but I think it looks cool.

B: That dress.

A: Do you like it? It's Ellie's.

B: Wow! It's great. Where does she buy her clothes?

A: She makes them herself.

A: Your neighbours are never at home! Are they travelling at the moment?

B: Yes, they're in Spain for the summer.

A: Do they often go to Spain?

B: Yes, nearly every year.

A: Where are they staying this year?

B: In Granada.

A: I can hear Ben upstairs. Is he doing his homework?

B: No, he's playing computer games, I think.

A: Who's he talking to?

B: Our cousin, Robbie. Do you know him?

A: No, I don't. How often do you see him?

B: Not very often. He lives in Scotland.

Narrator: 1 What is his job?

Speaker 1: Do you like your job?

Speaker 2: Yeah, and it's an important job – you feel good when you can help people.

Speaker 1: But what do you do when there isn't a fire?

Speaker 2: Well, we do training exercises, and we clean the equipment. And of course we're always ready to move quickly when we get a call.

Narrator: 2 What was his father's first job?

Speaker: Dad used to be a taxi driver – he used to work every night and every weekend. Then, a few years ago he decided to study at college. Now, he works as a plumber and he's really happy in his job.

Narrator: 3 Which hairstyle does Emma have now?

Speaker: Emma! You've been to the hairdresser's. That hairstyle looks great.

Emma: Yeah, it's not bad. I'd like to have really short hair, but it doesn't look good on me.

Speaker: You used to have very long hair when you were a kid, didn't you?

Emma: Yeah, that's right.

Narrator: 4 What used to grow in her great-grandmother's garden?

Speaker: I remember my great-grandmother's garden. It was small, so she couldn't have fruit trees, but she used to grow lots of different vegetables. She wasn't interested in growing flowers, but her vegetables were amazing.

Narrator: 5 What did he use in his recipe?

Speaker: When I was little I used to really love sweet things, like cakes and biscuits. One day I created a recipe for a sandwich. I put some chocolate biscuits on the bread and I added some sugar. Then I ate it. And half an hour later I was ill.

Unit 2, Quiz 2b

Unit 3, Exercise 3a

Narrator: Unit 3, Exercise 3a. Listen. What happened yesterday? Tick the correct picture.

Greg: Lisa!

Lisa: Hi, Greg. Hey, did you get that storm yesterday?

Greg: Yeah! I was listening to music in my room and there was nobody else at home. I could see it was getting really dark outside. And then suddenly there was this amazing BANG and all the lights went off.

Lisa: Yeah?

Greg: After that the computer wasn't working – nothing was working. I was sitting in the dark and the rain was incredible.

Lisa: Well, Dad and I were coming home in the car and we were going through the forest. And Dad was driving slowly because the wind was so strong ...

Greg: Yeah, the wind!

Lisa: And we were going over the bridge when we heard a noise and this really big tree came down right in front of the car.

Greg: Hey! It's lucky you weren't going fast.

Lisa: Yeah, it was really frightening. Awful storm!

Greg: Well, I quite enjoyed it, actually. I wasn't really worried. It was quite exciting, I thought.

Unit 3, Exercise 6a

Narrator: Unit 3, Exercise 6a. Listen. The speaker says each sentence twice. Write 1 or 2 for each emotion, A and B. Then listen again and repeat.

Narrator: 1

Oh! I didn't know you were here.

Unit 3, Exercise 6b

Narrator: Unit 3, Exercise 6b. Listen and tick the sentences where you hear strong emotion. Then listen again and repeat.

Narrator: 1
Speaker: Thanks a lot for your help.

Narrator: 2
Speaker: Look, it's raining again.

Narrator: 3
Speaker: There's a crocodile in the river.

Narrator: 4
Speaker: They've got over 500 CDs.

Narrator: 5
Speaker: Be careful – that's dangerous.

Unit 3, Exercise 6

Narrator: Unit 3. Practise saying these words.

Speaker: angry attack breathe disappointed embarrassing exciting frightened interesting middle-aged realise

 2: toddler
 3: child
 4: teenager
 5: elderly person

Unit 4, Exercise 2a

Narrator: Unit 4, Exercise 2a. Listen and check.

A: The Grand Hotel is the most luxurious hotel in town.

B: Well, it's definitely the most expensive hotel. But lots of people say the Carlton is friendlier and more comfortable than the Grand.

A: Which subject is easier for you: History or Geography?

B: I think History is harder, but it's also more interesting than Geography. Actually, Science is the most difficult subject at school for me.

A: Look at these! They're the most terrible photos I've ever taken.

B: You probably need a better camera.

A: No, the camera's OK. It's just that I'm the world's worst photographer.

Unit 4, Exercise 6a

Narrator: Unit 4, Exercise 6a. Listen and underline the stressed syllable.
Then listen again and repeat.

Speaker: crazy amazed normal

luxurious material memorable plate prefer restaurant spoon tablecloth tasty weird

Unit 4, Exercise 7

Narrator: Unit 4, Exercise 7. Listen to Adam and Lara talking about the Seaview restaurant. Complete the table. Write a tick for a positive opinion and a cross for a negative opinion.

Adam: It's Mum's birthday on Saturday. We're going to take her out to the Seaview restaurant for lunch.

Lara: Oh, Adam, are you sure you want to go there?

Adam: Yeah, why not? It's a lovely restaurant. A nice modern design with beautiful colours, and that fantastic view of the sea ...

Lara: Yes, I agree it looks great; there's no problem with the appearance. But I think the food's boring.

Adam: No! It's simple food, but they cook the best fish in town. The salmon is really amazing!

Lara: Well, there's nothing special about a plate of fish and chips. Also, the night we went to the Seaview it took nearly an hour for our food to arrive. My parents were quite angry, but the waiter didn't say sorry or anything.

Adam: Well, that's strange, because usually the waiters are really quick and friendly. I think the only problem with the Seaview is that the prices are high.

Lara: Yes, that's the worst thing. It's more expensive than any other restaurant round here.

Unit 4, Quiz 4b

Narrator: Unit 4, Quiz. Listen and check.

Narrator: 1
Speaker: in Dubai

Narrator: 2
Speaker: They are blind.

Narrator: 3

Narrator: 10
Speaker: crazy
 disgusting
 memorable

Unit 5, Exercise 2b

Narrator: Unit 5, Exercise 2b. Complete the conversations with will/ll, won't, might or might not. Then listen and check.

Adam: Do you want to go shopping tomorrow? We might find some good shoes. The shoe shop is closing, and the sign in the window says everything will be half price.

Marco: That sounds good, but I might not be able to go. It depends on Mum. She might want me to help with the painting.

Adam: That won't take long! You can do it this afternoon.

Marco: Yes, we've started, but we won't finish today. No way!

Marina: Will Tony and Andrea be here before eight o'clock?

Alice: Yes, they will. They're coming on the 7:30 bus.

Marina: I'm worried about the music. Tony might not remember to bring his CDs. I hope that won't happen, but he's got a bad memory.

Alice: No, it's OK – he won't forget. I rang him an hour ago. Where are you going to put the CD player?

Marina: I'm not sure. I might put it on the piano. What do you think?

Alice: Yes, good idea. I think it'll be OK there.

Unit 5, Exercise 4a

Unit 5, Exercise 7

Narrator: Unit 5, Exercise 7. Listen to the five conversations. Tick the correct answer: A, B or C.

- Narrator:* 1
Speaker 1: How are you going to get to Greece? By plane?
Speaker 2: No, we aren't going to fly. First we're going to drive down through Italy. And then we're going to take the ferry.
Speaker 1: That'll be expensive!
Speaker 2: No, with four people in the car it won't be too bad.
- Narrator:* 2
Speaker 1: I hope we'll be lucky with the weather tomorrow.
Speaker 2: Well, it'll be OK in the morning. It might not be very sunny, but I don't think it'll rain.
Speaker 1: But what about the afternoon?
Speaker 2: Ah, well, it might rain after lunch, I think.
- Narrator:* 3
Speaker 1: Is Nicola in her room?
Speaker 2: Yes, she's getting ready to go out. She's got a class at the drama centre this evening.
Speaker 1: Is she going to ride her scooter?
Speaker 2: No, she's going to take the bus.
- Narrator:* 4
Speaker 1: Hey, Robbie, can you help me?
Speaker 2: What's the problem?
Speaker 1: My printer isn't working. Look. When I click here on the screen ... nothing happens.
Speaker 2: Is there something wrong with your mouse?
Speaker 1: No, no, the mouse is fine.
- Narrator:* 5
Speaker 1: What sort of job do you think you'll have in the future, Matt?
Speaker 2: I don't know. I might be a chef – I like cooking. Or I might work as a designer – you know, in computer design.
Speaker 1: Will you stay here in London?
Speaker 2: Oh, definitely. I won't move from London, that's for sure.

Unit 5, Quiz 5b

Narrator: Unit 5, Quiz. Listen and check.

Narrator: 1
Speaker: helicopter

Narrator: 10
Speaker: B: Yes, I am.

Unit 6, Exercise 3a

Narrator: Unit 6, Exercise 3a. Listen and match the speakers (1–4) with the sports. There are two extra sports.

Narrator: Speaker 1

Speaker 1: You usually jump from the plane about 4,000 metres from the ground. While you're falling, you can move and turn in all directions, so it's like flying – really fantastic. Then of course you open your parachute when you get closer to the ground ... and finally you land.

Narrator: Speaker 2

Speaker 2: You should always have lessons before you try this. You must learn how to use the equipment so you can breathe under water. And you shouldn't go down alone. When you know what you're doing, it's just brilliant. You discover a whole new world!

Narrator: Speaker 3

Speaker 3: I watched people doing this the other day on TV. They were jumping off this bridge, incredibly high bridge, and the rope pulled them up just a few metres from the water. They say it's really exciting, but ooh ... I know they check the equipment carefully, but it looks frightening to me.

Narrator: Speaker 4

Speaker 4: Well, of course it's cold, so you need good warm clothes. And you wear special boots which go on the board – you can't move your feet when you're riding on the board. Also, I think you should wear wrist supports. It's easy to break your wrist if you fall.

Unit 6, Exercise 5a

Narrator: Unit 6, Exercise 5a. Draw lines between words with a consonant-vowel link. Listen, check and repeat.

Narrator: 1
Speaker: Come into the house.

Narrator: 2
Speaker: It's Olga's umbrella.

Narrator: 3
Speaker: Give Peter a bowl of soup.

Narrator: 4
Speaker: I woke up at nine o'clock.

Narrator: 5
Speaker: This is an awful ice cream!

Narrator: 6
Speaker: It was a hot afternoon in August.

Unit 6, Exercise 5b

Narrator: Unit 6, Exercise 5b. Listen to the poem and draw lines to show the linked words.

Speaker: I climbed up a ladder and fell on the floor.
I jumped off my skateboard and rolled out the door.
I dropped all my books and got wet in the rain ...
Tomorrow I'll do it all over again.

Unit 6, Exercise 5c

Narrator: Unit 6, Exercise 5c. Practise saying the whole poem with the recording.

Speaker: I climbed up a ladder and fell on the floor.
I jumped off my skateboard and rolled out the door.
I dropped all my books and got wet in the rain ...
Tomorrow I'll do it all over again.

Unit 6, Exercise 5

Narrator: Unit 6. Practise saying these words.

Speaker: climbing diving board ground motor mountain practise roll shouldn't

Unit 6, Quiz 6b

Narrator: Unit 6, Quiz. Listen and check.

Narrator: 1
Speaker: bungee jumping mountain biking water skiing scuba diving

Narrator: 2
Speaker: parkour

Narrator: 3
Speaker: C: You must know how to drive.

Narrator: 4
Speaker 1: Should I wear a helmet?
Speaker 2: Yes, you should.

Narrator: 5
Speaker: He's climbing.

Narrator: 6
Speaker: A: right
 B: wrong
 C: wrong

Narrator: 7
Speaker: He's diving.

Narrator: 8
Speaker: The picture fell off the wall.

Narrator: 9
Speaker: I have to wash up after dinner.

Narrator: 10
Speaker: When do you have to leave?

Unit 7, Exercise 2c

Narrator: Unit 7, Exercise 2c. Complete the conversation with the verbs in the present perfect or the past simple. Then listen and check.

- A:* Have you heard this album? It's fantastic!
- B:* Oh, it's by Foxy Blues. I've seen them a few times on YouTube.
- A:* I bought the CD on Saturday and I love it. I've played it about 50 times!
- B:* When did they record it?
- A:* About a month ago. It hasn't got into the charts, but I'm sure that will happen soon.
- B:* Have they made any other albums?
- A:* No, they haven't. But Ricky Cartland has written some brilliant songs for other bands. Helena Rico sang two of his songs on her album last year.
- B:* Yes, that's right. I didn't like them much, actually.
- A:* Oh, really? I thought they were great.

Unit 7, Exercise 4a

Narrator: Unit 7, Exercise 4a. Listen and match conversations 1–5 with texts A–E.

Narrator: 1

Speaker 1: What are you looking at?

Speaker 2: It's that song, 'What about me?' by Tiger Tiger. I'm looking at the lyrics.

Speaker 1: That's an old song!

Speaker 2: Yeah, I know. The album came out in 2008, but I still like it.

Narrator: 2

Speaker 1: This is a good website. They've got more than 50,000 songs and they're all free to download.

Speaker 2: Yes, but should they be free? There are problems with this, you know.

Speaker 1: Yeah, it's OK. The company's got an agreement with the record labels.

Narrator: 3

Speaker 1: Have you heard the new single by Traffic Hazard? It's called 'Crazy Babe'.

Presenter: You're watching The Big Quiz and here we have three new contestants – Michael, Karen and James. Hello and welcome to the show.

All: Hello / Hi / Hello, Carol.

Presenter: So, let's get started with question 1. I want the name of a person. She's a singer and actress who first became famous when she starred in a popular TV series in 2006. She played the part of a girl who was an ordinary student by day but a pop star at night ... Yes, Karen?

Karen: Hannah Montana.

Presenter: Ah – no ... Michael?

Michael: Miley Cyrus.

Presenter: Yes, that's right. It was Miley Cyrus who was the actress. So that's a point to Michael – bad luck, Karen. Right, question 2. He's a character in a TV show. It's a comedy series which has been on TV since 1989. He's bald and overweight. He's got a big mouth, round eyes and little round ears. He loves food and he ... Yes, James?

James: Is it Homer Simpson?

Presenter: Correct! Well done, James. Homer Simpson, of course, is the father in the long-running series The Simpsons. OK ... question 3. About half a billion people watch the football World Cup final every four years. I want the name of the country where ... James!

James: Brazil.

Presenter: No, I'm sorry. The country where the 19th World Cup took place. Michael!

Michael: I think it was South Africa.

Presenter: Yes, that's right – the 19th World Cup was in 2010 in South Africa. Another point to Michael, so the scores now are ...

Mum: Really? That's great! But listen, Ned, don't waste it. Please use it for something sensible.

Dave: Are you going to the concert tonight?

Sam: No, I don't want to spend any money this weekend. I'm trying to save money for a guitar. It's not easy!

Dave: Why don't you try to find some work? If you had a weekend job, you could earn some extra money.

Aya: I'd like to get this, but I can't pay for it. I've only got £10 here.

Elena: I can lend you some money. How much do you need?

Aya: Could I borrow £12? I can give it back to you on Monday.

Elena: Yes, sure. That's fine.

Unit 12, Exercise 6a

Narrator: 1

Speaker: Laura, if you could live anywhere in the world, where would you choose?

Laura: I'd live in a tropical place – maybe Hawaii.

Speaker: Yeah! Right next to the beach.

Laura: Well, I wouldn't live far from the sea, so I could always go surfing. But my house would be up in the hills. I'd have a big house with a swimming pool and a garden.

Speaker: Mmm. I'd often come and stay if you lived there.

Narrator: 2

Speaker: It's your birthday soon, Mark. What present would you like?

Mark: A really good video camera. I've got a great idea for a short movie. If I had a good camera, I'd film it myself and put it on the Internet.

Speaker: What sort of movie?

Mark: An action film.

Speaker: Yeah – well, a good video camera's really expensive. Who's going to spend all that money on your birthday?

Mark: Nobody. But if I could have any present, that's what I'd choose.

Narrator: 3

Speaker: I wonder what jobs we'll have when we leave school. Hey Danny, what would you do if you could choose?

Danny: If I could choose any job, I'd be a doctor and I'd work in Africa.

Speaker: Are you joking? In Africa?

Danny: Yes, in a hospital. I'd work with children.

Speaker: Wow! That would be really hard work, and you wouldn't earn much money.

Danny: I know, but money isn't everything.
