How to use these indexes:

Choose an activity by consulting the five indexes. Then go to the table for your comments which follows. This tells you how the activity you have chosen is organised (pairwork, whole class, etc.) and what stage in the writing process it focuses on. If these are not appropriate to your needs, go back to the indexes and choose another activity.

Your comments

The table which follows lists all the activities in the book. In the second column, you will find the predominant organisation mode (Individual, Pairs, Groups, Whole Class). In the third column, you will find the process stage most focused on (Planning, Targetting, Organising, Drafting, Evaluating, Editing, Rewriting). We have also left a space in the table for you to record the date you used the activity, the class you used it with and any comments or improvements you thought of.
