Thanks and acknowledgements

Dedication: to Lynn, Sean, Luke, Wanda and Basil Lesowiec.

The authors would like to thank all the students, teachers and inspectors who have worked with us on many courses in Oman, Egypt, Poland, the Czech Republic, Brazil and on Mentor and MA programmes in the UK at University College Chichester and Leicester University. Many of their ideas and perspectives from the basis of the interpretations we offer.

For help in the process of publishing this book we are indebted to both series editors, Marion Williams and in particular to Tony Wright for his painstakingly detailed editing and useful comments on the different drafts. We would also like to thank Alison Sharpe, Frances Amrani and Bernie Hayden for helping to see the project through to completion.

The authors and publishers are grateful to the following for permission to reproduce copyright material. It has not been possible to identify the sources of all the material used and in such cases the publishers would welcome information from copyright owners.
