

WHAT'S CHICAGO LIKE?

Check (✓) the correct sentences to make conversations.

- | | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. A: I feel safe in Chicago.
B: <input type="checkbox"/> You're right. It's pretty safe.
<input type="checkbox"/> You're right. It's not too safe. 2. A: It's pretty exciting, too.
B: <input type="checkbox"/> But it's very beautiful.
<input type="checkbox"/> And it's very beautiful. 3. A: It's really hot in the summer and cold in the winter.
B: <input type="checkbox"/> It's very nice in the spring, though.
<input type="checkbox"/> It's not very nice in the spring, though. | 4. A: There are some nice museums.
B: <input type="checkbox"/> And they're not interesting.
<input type="checkbox"/> But they're always crowded. 5. A: There are great shows.
B: <input type="checkbox"/> Some of them are expensive, however.
<input type="checkbox"/> They are too exciting, however. 6. A: Lake Michigan is pretty clean.
B: <input type="checkbox"/> And it's really beautiful.
<input type="checkbox"/> Yes, it's not too clean. |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

YOUR FAVORITE CITY

A Write information about your favorite city in the You column.

	You	Your partner
Favorite city
Things you can do there
Things you should see there
Things you shouldn't do there

B PAIR WORK Interview a partner who chose a different city.
Write the answers in the Your partner column.

A: What's your favorite city, Carla?

B: It's Cancún

A: What can you do there?

B: You can go to the beaches.
They're really beautiful.

A: What should people see there?

B: Well, they shouldn't miss the Mayan ruins at Tulum.

