

Index of stories by culture

This index contains stories that are clearly connected to a nationality or culture. Many stories (for example, those from Aesop) are so widely known that they are not associated with a specific culture; for those, see the List of Folktales on page viii or the General Index.

African

Greedy Old Spider, The, 75
Wine for the Feast, 119

British

Cakes and Cider – An Urban Legend, 7
Fisherman’s Wife, The, 232
Goldilocks, 185
Jack and the Beanstalk, 246

Catalan

Riddle, The, 22

Chinese

Empty Pot, The, 19, 240
Fourth Question, The, 68

Ethiopian

Wise Judge, The, 221

German

Mother Holly, 149

Japanese

Benizara and Kakezara, 265
King and the Baby, The, 113
Whale and the Sea Slug, The, 263

Jewish/Yiddish

It Could Always Be Worse, 88
King and the Baby, The, 113
Poor Fish, The, 40
Riddle, The (see Notes on Story), 22
What Hershel’s Father Did, 173

Korean

Hunghu and Nolbu, 42
Judgment of the Rabbit, The, 228
Teacher’s Jar, The, 172
Tiger and the Dried Persimmon, The, 213

Middle Eastern

Amin and the Eggs, 147
Perfect Wife, The, 12
Salem and the Nail, 104

Native American

Strong Wind, 108

Scandanavian/Norse

Boy Who Went to the North Wind, The, 238
Man Who Kept House, The, 244
Peter and the North Wind, 240

Turkish

New Patches for Old, 214

Index of story themes

challenges

Princess Who Never Smiled, The, 171

change of heart

Lost Son, The, 61

character, tests of Princess's suitors, The, 122, 209

communication

Wise Judge, The, 221

Tiger and the Dried Persimmon, The, 213

contentment

Fisherman and His Wife, The, 232

It Could Always Be Worse, 88

Man Who Kept House, The, 244

Riddle, The, 22

Stonecutter, The, 5

craftiness

Amin and the Eggs, 147

Donkey's Brains, The, 130

Judgment of the Rabbit, The, 228

Salem and the Nail, 104

Stone Soup, 83

Teacher's Jar, The, 172

Thief, The, 146

diligence

Boy Who Went to the North Wind, The, 238

Fourth Question, The, 68

father/son relationship

Lost Son, The, 61

flattery

Fox and the Crow, The, 128

forgiveness

Hungbu and Nolbu, 42

Lost Son, The, 61

Unmerciful Man, The, 216

gardening

Empty Pot, The, 19, 240

greed

Amin and the Eggs, 147

Dog and the Meat, The, 57

Fisherman and His Wife, The, 232

Greedy Old Spider, The, 75

Hungbu and Nolbu, 42

Stone Cutter, The, 5

Teacher's Jar, The, 172

Unmerciful Man, The, 216

Woodcutter's Axe, The, 40

hardships, attitude toward

It Could Always Be Worse, 88

honesty/dishonesty

Boy Who Cried Wolf, The, 139, 208

Empty Pot, The, 19, 240

King and the Baby, The, 113

Man Who Never Lied, The, 111

Strong Wind, 108

Teacher's Jar, The, 172

Wine for the Feast, 119

Woodcutter's Axe, The, 40

hunger

Stone Soup, 83

What Hershel's Father Did, 173

hypocrisy

Good Neighbor, The, 220

impossible ideas

Belling the Cat, 128

integrity

Fourth Question, The, 68

judgments

Amin and the Eggs, 147

Judgment of the Rabbit, The, 228

King and the Baby, The, 113

Wise Judge, The, 221

kindness

Good Neighbor, The, 220

Judgment of the Rabbit, The, 228

Index of story themes

kindness, benefit of

- Androcles and the Lion*, 130
- Benizara and Kakezara*, 265
- Gold in the Chimney*, 269
- Hungbu and Nolbu*, 42
- Lion and the Mouse, The*, 130
- Mother Holly*, 149

male/female roles

- Man Who Kept House, The*, 244

marriage

- Benizara and Kakezara*, 265
- Perfect Wife, The*, 12
- Princess's Suitors, The*, 122, 209
- Wise Judge, The*, 221

misunderstanding

- New Patches for Old*, 214
- Tiger and the Dried Persimmon, The*, 213
- Wise Judge, The*, 221

people pleasing

- Man, the Boy, and the Donkey, The*, 66
- Poor Fish*, 40

poverty

- Riddle, The*, 22

power, desire for

- Fisherman and His Wife, The*, 232

pride

- Frog and the Ox, The*, 128
- Turtle and the Rabbit, The*, 262
- Whale and the Sea Slug, The*, 263

questions

- Fourth Question, The*, 68

riddles

- Riddle, The*, 22

rulers, selection of

- Empty Pot, The*, 21

sadness

- Princess Who Never Smiled, The*, 171

spouse, selection of

- Princess's Suitors, The*, 122, 209

stepdaughter/mother relationship

- Benizara and Kakezara*, 265
- Mother Holly*, 149

stupidity

- Donkey's Brains, The*, 130

success

- Empty Pot, The*, 21

theft

- Boy Who Went to the North Wind, The*, 238
- Gold in the Chimney*, 269
- Goldilocks and the Three Bears*, 185
- Thief, The*, 146

tricks

- Boy Who Cried Wolf, The*, 139, 208
- Man Who Never Lied, The*, 111
- Salem and the Nail*, 104

tricksters

- Greedy Old Spider, The*, 75
- What Hershel's Father Did*, 173

trust

- Boy Who Cried Wolf, The*, 139, 208

wickedness, reward for

- Mother Holly*, 149

wild living

- Lost Son, The*, 61

General index

- Aarne, Antti, 279
 abstract vocabulary, using folktales to make concrete, 14
 abstractness of concepts, 14 academic goals, developing analytical skills, 250
 acting, by audience during story presentation, 25 active listening, using questions to encourage, 99
 activities, photocopying, 19
 adjectives, 136
 adolescent fantasy literature, making transitions to other types of literature with, 30–31
 adult themes, addressed by folktales, 15
 Aesop, 155
   Androcles and the Lion, 130
   Belling the Cat, 128
   Dog and the Meat, The, 57
   Donkey's Brains, The, 130
   Fox and the Crow, The, 128
   Fox and the Stork, The, 128, 158
   Frog and the Ox, The, 128
   Internet sources for tales by, 280
   Lion, the Fox, and the Beasts, The, 130
   Lion and the Mouse, The, 130
   Man and His Two Wives, The, 40
   Mercury and the Woodman, 40
   Turtle and the Rabbit, The, 262
 Alexander, Lloyd, 283
 ambiguous strip story, 110–114
Amin and the Eggs, 147–148
 analogy, introducing students to, 283 analysis of story structure in multi-level classroom, 35
 analytical skills, 250–276
 Anansi (Spider), 77
Androcles and the Lion, 130
 animal stories, see fables animal vocabulary, 90
 antonyms, working on with matching cards, 183
 apprehension of students about folktales, addressing, 29–30
 Asbjørnsen, P. C., 246, 277 assistance for students, examples of different degrees of, 258–259
 atmosphere improved by group work, 101 attitudes, improving, through stories from students' culture, 22 audience involvement while telling stories, 25
Ax Soup (variant of Stone Soup), 85 Babbit, Natalie, 283
 background knowledge, 16, 31
Belling the Cat, 128
Benizara and Kakezara, 265
Best-Loved Folktales of the World, 278
 Biblical stories, 30
   Good Samaritan, The, 220
   King and the Baby, The, 113
   Prodigal Son, The, 62
   Unmerciful Man, The, 216
Black Cauldron, The, 283 book of student stories, creating, 178–180
Book of Three, The, 283
Boy Who Cried Wolf, The, 139
   drama based on, 208
   example of teaching grammar, 135

General index

- Boy Who Went to the North Wind, The*, 238
     making Concentration cards for, 183 brainstorming, 159, 168, 174
     sample, 176
 Brown, Marcia, 85
 building collection of material, 19–20 building refrains, 10
By Unanimous Vote, 140–141
- Cakes and Cider – An Urban Legend*, 7–8 captions, writing for pictures, 55
 cards
     creating stories from, 165–167
     matching game, 182–184
Castle of Llyr, The, 283
 cause-and-effect stories, 242–249 cause/effect analysis, in multilevel classroom, 35 chanting refrains, 81
     pronunciation practice through, 25 characters common to folktales of many lands, 16–17 charts, grouping ideas with, 276 childishness, addressing student concerns about, 29–30 children's books, 282–284
 children's fantasy literature, making transitions to other types of literature with, 30–31 choosing stories for oral tellings, 22 choral production, used with repeated refrain, 82
Chronicles of Narnia, The, 282 chronologically ordered story structure, 9
 Cinderella variants
     Internet sources for, 280
     Strong Wind, 108
 Clarkson, Atelia, 278
 classroom, tips for, 19–31 classroom atmosphere, improved by group work, 101 cloze passages
     in multilevel classroom, 35
     practicing, inferring meaning from context with, 144
 Cole, Joanna, 278
 collections of folktales, suggestions on, 277–278
Color Fairy Books, The, 278 colors, 85
 commentary on illustrations, 50 communication breakdowns, sensitivity to, 20 comparatives, 136, 219
 comparing/contrasting, 273
     in multilevel classroom, 35, 38
     useful stories for, 260
     variants of tales, 255
 competence, strategic, 202 completing existing stories, 168–173 complexity of concepts increases difficulty, 13
 Concentration matching cards in multilevel classroom, 33
 Concentration matching game, 182–188 concepts, concrete, folktales characterized by, 13 concerns from students about folktales, addressing, 29–30 conclusions, in building awareness of text structure, 225–230 concreteness of ideas, 14
     folktales characterized by, 13
     of vocabulary, folktales characterized by, 13 conditional (if . . . then), 85, 136 context, inferring meaning from, 142, 149 continuum line
     creating graphic organizer based on, 94 showing relative importance with, 276 contrasts between opposite characters, folktales characterized by, 11 cooperative activities in multilevel classroom, 38

General index

- coordinating conjunctions, common
  - in folktales, 13
- copying activities from this book, 19
- creating book of student stories, 178–180
- creating stories based on pictures, 56
- creating story from strips, 115
- creatures to include in story writing, 161–162
- critical evaluation, 257
- Cross, Gilbert B., 278
- crossword puzzles, 196–204
  - creating, 196
  - in multilevel classroom, 33, 35
- culture(s)
  - advantages of choosing stories from students', 22
  - common elements addressed in folktales, 16
  - distinctive elements, using folktales to draw attention to, 17
  - generating discussion based on, 94
  - students telling stories from their own, 99
- cut-out figures, using for story retelling, 86–93
- cyclical story, 231–235
  - Thrilling Tale, A*, 235
- defining, practicing skill of, with crossword puzzles, 202
- definitions, creating matching cards with, 183
- degree ("too _____"), 137
- Demi, 21, 277
- describing, practicing while writing clues for crossword puzzles, 202
- diagrams, Venn, used as graphic organizers, 269
- dialog/direct speech, 137
- dictation
  - creating materials with limited resources, 102
  - drawing map, 63
  - drawing pictures, 54
  - using to create materials, 63, 86
- dictionary
  - making with metaphorical definitions, 283
  - reducing dependence on, 142
- different level texts, cooperative activity with, 42
- different versions of tales, comparing, 255
- difficulty of activity, adjusting, 127
- direct speech, 212
- discussion activities, 94–98
  - of story pictures, 48–49
  - students generate questions for, 98
- discussion groups, on-line, 281–282
- Dog and the Meat, The*, 57
- Donkey's Brains, The*, 130
- Doughty, Catherine, 101
- drama, 205–223
  - converting folktales to, 212–216
  - in multilevel classroom, 37
  - multipart, 217–223
  - presenting folktales with, 206–212
- drawing inferences, 257
  - drama helps students in, 206, 212
- drawing pictures based on story, 53
- effect, cause and, 242–249
- Ellis, Rod, 101
- endlessly recurring stories, Thrilling Tale, A, 235
- episodes, building awareness of text structure, 225–230
- ethical issues, generating discussion based on, 95–96
- evaluating, 273–274
  - identifying importance of differences, 257
  - and summarizing, activity on, 251–254
- exchanges, optional or required, 101
- existing stories, finishing, 168–173
- eye contact, 20, 27
- fables, 7, 56–57
  - Aesop, 155
- facial expression, 27
- fairy tales, 4

General index

- fantasy literature, making transitions to other types of literature with, 30–31
- farm animal vocabulary, 90
- feedback
     peer and teacher, 174
     to help students respond/incorporate, 178
- feelings, interpreting with drama, 205
- figurative language, introducing students to, 283
- finishing existing stories, 168–173
- first person, converting to third person, 179
- Fisherman and His Wife, The*, 232–235
- focused listening, 100
- folklore, Internet conference on, 281
- food vocabulary, 85
- Fourth Question, The*, 68
     map based on, 71
- Fox and the Crow, The*, 128
- Fox and the Stork, The*, 128
     using pictures about to generate
     writing, 158
- Fox, George, story about, 111
- Frank Schaffer Publications, 57
- Frog and the Ox, The*, 128
- furniture vocabulary, 65, 186
- games, 181
     Concentration, 182–184
     crossword puzzles, creating your own, 196
- Gass, Susan, 101
- general/specific relationships,
     working on with matching cards, 183
- gerunds (“-ing”), 137
- gestures, awareness of, 27
- Gold in the Chimney*, 269
- Goldilocks and the Three Bears*, 185
     Concentration matching cards
     based on, 167
- Good Neighbor, The*, 220
- Good Samaritan, The*, 220
- Graham, Carolyn, 18
- grammar, 135
     converting indirect to direct speech, 212 converting past to present tense, 212 explanations of, integrating with story telling, 51
     repetition useful for learning, 10 reviewing while reading stories, 50 simple, folktales characterized by, 13 structures common in folktales, 135 using Language Jeopardy to practice, 191
     working on with matching cards,
     184
- graphic organizers
     for comparison/contrast, 257 for examining text structure, 227, 230
     samples, 268
     Venn diagram, 269
- Greedy Old Spider, The*, 75
- crossword puzzles based on,
     199–201
- Jeopardy* clues/answers for,
     192–193
- pictures and cut-outs for retelling, 93
- suggestions for orally telling, 27
- using pictures about to generate
     writing, 157
- Grimm
     Internet source for, 281 tales included in Lang, 278
- group work, 101
- guessing at unknown words, 142–145
- hands-on involvement, 86
     drama helps students who prefer, 205
- Hans Christian Anderson, Internet sources for tales by, 280
- hero stories, 7
- Hershel, 173
- High King, The*, 283
- historic present, 140–141

General index

- historical stories, Man Who Never Lied, The, 111
- Hobbit, The*, 283
- horror, common in urban myths, 7
- Horse and His Boy, The*, 282
- house
  - floorplan of, 65
  - rooms in, vocabulary related to, 186
- Hungbu and Nolbu*, 42
- ideas, concrete, folktales characterized by, 14
  - grouping, 276
- illustrations, see pictures
- imperative, 137
- importance
  - evaluating, 251
  - relative, showing with continuum line, 276
- independent writing activities in multilevel classroom, 37
- indirect speech, 212
- individual reading, 133–134
- individualized instruction, increased through use of group work, 101
- inferences, drawing
  - developing skill of, 257
  - drama helps students in, 206, 212
- inferring meaning from context, 142–145
- infinitives, 137
- information exchanges, optional versus required, 101
- information gaps, interactive, 101–131
- input, simplified, results in less language gain, 101
- interaction
  - group work activities, optional versus required exchanges in, 101
  - input modified during, 101
- interactive activities, 101
- interest, improving through stories from students' culture, 22
- Internet
  - folklore conference on, 282
  - source for urban myths, 6
  - sources for folktales on, 280–282
  - storytelling conference on, 282
- intonation in pronunciation, working on with repeated refrains, 81
- introductions
  - having students write for themselves, 178–179
  - episodes, and conclusions, building awareness of text structure, 225–230
- involvement, audience, while telling stories, 25
- irregular verbs, 139
- It Could Always Be Worse*, 88
- Jeopardy* clues/answers for, 192–193
  - multilevel strip story based on, 34
  - repeated refrain for, 82–83
- item cards, writing stories based on, 163–167
- Jack and the Beanstalk*, 246
  - cause-and-effect relationships in, 244
  - using pictures about to generate writing, 157
- Jazz Chant Fairy Tales*, 18
- Jeopardy*, 189–195
- jigsaw story reconstruction, 117–125
  - in multilevel classroom, 38
- journalism, 154
- Judgment of the Rabbit, The*, 228
- juxtapositions between opposite characters, folktales characterized by, 11
- King and the Baby, The*, 113
  - ambiguous strip story based on, 114
- King Solomon, 113
- Lang, Andrew, 278
- language, figurative, introducing students to, 283

General index

- language experience approach (LEA), 79
- language explanations, integrating with story telling, 51–52
- language games, 181–204
- language Jeopardy, 189–195
- language practice, fear that folktales do not provide, 29
- large classes
  - multipart drama in, 217–223
  - multiple story scramble in, 126–131
  - organizing groups in, 118
- Last Battle, The*, 282
- LEA (language experience approach), 79
- learning styles, 25
- legends, urban, see urban myths
- levels of the stories in book, 19
- Lewis, C. S., 282–283
- libraries, public, as source for material, 30
- life, relating stories to, 50
  - drama forces students to, 206, 212
- limited resource contexts, materials option for, 87
- limited resources, ideas for creating materials, 102
- Lion, the Fox, and the Beasts, The*, 130
- Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe, The*, 282
- Lion and the Mouse, The*, 130
- listening, 47–77
  - active, using questions to encourage, 99
  - creating self-access materials for, 43
  - focused, 100
  - picture-sorting activity, 54–62
  - using folktales to practice, 17–18
- literacy, 79
- literary retellings of folktales, 4
- literature, making a bridge from folktales to, 30–31
- Little Red Riding Hood*, literary beginning from Perrault, 4
- Littledale, Freya, 277
- logical connectors, sequential (first, next, etc.), 54
- Long, Michael, 101
- Lord of the Rings*, 283
- Lost Son, The*, 61–62
  - discussion questions based on, 97–98
  - multilevel picture-sorting activity based on, 60
- MacDonald, Margaret Read, 279
- magical things to include in story writing, 162
- Magician's Nephew, The*, 282
  - map activity based on, 67
  - picture-sorting activity based on, 59
- Man, the Boy, and the Donkey, The*, 66
- Man and His Two Wives, The*, 40
- Man Who Kept House, The*, 244
- Man Who Never Lied, The*, 111
  - ambiguous strip story based on, 112
- map, marking story's events on, 63–71
- mapping, semantic, 174, 176
- märchen, 7
- marking events on a map, 63–71
- matching cards, 182–184
  - in multilevel classroom, 33, 37
- materials
  - collecting over time, 19–20
  - creating with limited resources, 102
  - having students help create, 55
  - reusable, 102
  - sources for, 277–284
- meaning
  - inferring from context, 142, 149
  - relationships between vocabulary items, helping students understand, 183
- memorization, 25
- Mercury and the Woodman*, 40

General index

- metaphor, introducing students to, 283
- Meyer, B. J. F., 224
- mime, 27
- Missing Brothers, The*, 170
- mixed level groups, 38
- models, 137
- modeling evaluation process, 252
- modeling strategies, 143
- modern folktales, see urban myths
- Moe, J. E., 246, 277
- moral elements, predictability and, 11
- moral issues
  - addressed by folktales, 15
  - generating discussion based on, 95–96
- Mother Holly*, 149
  - creating map for, 63
- Motif-Index of Folk-Literature, The*, 280
- motivation, improved by group work, 101
- motives, interpreting with drama, 205
- multilevel classroom, 32–43
  - comparison/contrast activity in, 259
  - concentration matching cards in, 184
  - crossword puzzles in, 198
  - different question types for different levels, 48
  - drama in, 212
  - giving different tasks to different students, 56
  - independent writing activities in, 37
  - jigsaw activity in, 120–125
  - multiple story scramble for, 40, 126–131
  - story completion activity in, 169
  - strip story in, 104
  - use of timeline in, 74
- multipart story drama, 217–223
- multiple levels, directing input in all, 50
- multiple story scramble, 126–131
  - in multilevel classroom, 37
  - sample multilevel activity, 40–41
- mythology, Welsh, 283
- myths, urban, see urban myths
- Nail Soup*, variant of Stone Soup, 85
- Narnia, Chronicles of*, 282–283
- Nasrudin, 12
- Native American stories, Internet
  - source for, 281
- native culture, advantages of
  - choosing stories from students', 22
- negative conditional, 85
- negatives, 137
- Nesreddin Hodja, Internet source for
  - stories about, 281
- New Patches for Old*, 214–215
- note taking, 72, 119, 127
- Nuttall, Christine, 143
- on-line discussion groups, 281–282
- opposites, working on with matching cards, 183
- oral presentations, preparing students for, 100
- oral reading
  - supplementing with comments on pictures, 50
  - with picture commentary, 50
- oral retelling by students, 80
- oral telling, 22
  - choosing stories for, 22
  - differences from reading aloud, 20–22
  - often preferred by students, 21
  - with repeated refrain, 81–85
- oral tradition, 22
- ordering of strip story, 102, 115
- original stories, writing, 174
  - from list of items, 159–162
- Oscarsson, Kristen, 16
- outlines, value for oral telling, 25
- parables
  - Good Neighbor, The*, 220

General index

- parables (continued)
  - Lost Son, The*, 61
  - Unmerciful Man, The*, 216
- parrallelisms, drawing attention to, 225
- paraphrasing
  - practicing while writing clues for crossword puzzles, 202
  - sensitivity to need for, 20
- passive statements, 115, 191
- past perfect tense, 137
- past tense
  - converting to present, 212
  - regular, 51
  - simple
    - irregular verbs, 141
    - regular verbs, 135
- peer feedback, 174–175
- people to include in story writing, 162
- Perfect Wife, The*, 12
- Perrault, tales included in Lang, 278
- personal issues, generating discussion based on, 95
- photocopying, alternatives to, 63
- photocopying activities, 19
- photocopying costs, reducing, 86
- physical characteristics, predictability and, 13
- Pica, Theresa, 101
- pictures
  - associating word with
    - Concentration matching game, 182–183
  - commentary on while reading, 50
  - contextual support provided by, 14–15
  - creating stories based on, 55–56
  - discussion of, 48
  - drawing based on story, 53
  - introducing story writing with, 154–158
  - sequencing based on story, 53
  - sorting activity, 54
  - sources for, 54, 86
  - using to help students retell story, 86
  - writing captions for, 55
- places to include in story writing, 161
- plays, see drama
- Poor Fish*, 40
- Porter, Patricia A., 101
- prelistening, using strip story for, 103
- prereading, using strip story for, 103
- predictability
  - contributed to by moral elements, 11
  - folktales characterized by, 11
- prediction, 51, 55
- preparing students for folktales, 29–30
- prepositions, 219
  - practicing with matching cards, 184
  - spacial relationships, 66, 77, 138
- present tense
  - converting past to, 212
  - historic, 140–141
  - simple, 137
- presentations, oral, preparing students for, 100
- preteaching vocabulary, 26, 54, 64
- preteaching key vocabulary/concepts, 26
- Prince Caspian*, 282
- Princess Who Never Smiled, The*, 171
- Princess's Suitors, The*, 122
  - drama based on, 209–211
  - multilevel cause/effect activity, 36
  - text structure of, 230
- prioritizing, 251–252
- priority, ranking items based on, 276
- problem/solution analysis, in
  - multilevel classroom, 35
- problem/solution stories, 236–241
- Prodigal Son, The*, 62
- production, improved through
  - difficult input and interaction, 101
- pronunciation
  - focusing on with language
    - Jeopardy*, 191
  - suprasegmentals, 25
  - using folktales to practice, 18
- Prydain Chronicles, The*, 283

General index

- psychological issues addressed by
  - folktales, 15
- public libraries as source for material, 30
- public speaking, preparing students for, 100
- publishing student stories, 160
- puzzles, crossword, 196–204
  - creating, 196
- quality and quantity of production, improved by group work, 101
- question forms, working on, 154–155
- questions
  - different types for different students, 48–49
  - for discussion, having students generate, 98
  - tag, 191
  - teaching forms of, 137
  - using to generate more active listening, 99
  - using to involve students, 51
- ranking, 251–252
- reader–writer relationship, 15
- reading, 132–152
  - creating self-access materials for, 43
  - dealing with unfamiliar vocabulary during, 142–152
  - grammar focus, 135–141
  - individual, 133–134
  - repeated, value of, 118–119
  - sustained silent (SSR), 133
  - using folktales to practice, 18
- reading aloud, differences from oral telling, 20–22
- real objects, using to reinforce meaning, 29
- real life
  - drama helps students relate stories to, 206, 212
- reconstructing stories, jigsaw activity, 117–125
- Red Riding Hood*, Internet sources for variants, 280
- redundancy
  - folktales characterized by, 9
  - important for oral tellings, 22
- refrains, 10
  - chanting, pronunciation practice through, 25
  - repeated, oral tellings with, 81
- regular past tense, 51
- regular verbs, 135
- relating stories to life, 50
- relational opposites, working on with matching cards, 183
- relative importance, showing with continuum line, 276
- repeated refrain, oral tellings with, 81–85
- repetition
  - folktales characterized by, 9
  - important for oral tellings, 22
  - reinforcing learning with, 86
- required information exchanges, interaction produced by, 101
- rereading, value of, 119
- resources, limited, ideas for creating materials, 102
- retelling stories
  - with cut-out figures, 86–93
  - retold by students, 80
- reusable materials, creating, 102
- review, through language games, 181–204
- rewriting stories, 28–29
- rhetorical patterns, 9
- rhymed portions of tales, using to practice suprasegmental pronunciation, 18
- rhythm in pronunciation, working on with repeated refrains, 81
- Riddle, The*, 22–24
  - crossword puzzle based on, 197
  - discussion questions based on, 96–97
- Salem and the Nail*, 104
  - evaluating summary statements on, 253–254

General index

Salem and the Nail (continued)

Jeopardy clues and answers for, 192–193 strip story based on, 105–106 scaffolding, see also support
   different degrees of, 258
   different levels of, 36
 Scrabble letters, using in making
   crossword puzzles, 196
 scrambled stories, 104, 126–131
Search for Delicious, The, 283 self-access activities, 38
   cloze passages as, 144
   comparison/contrast activity, 259–260 concentration matching cards as, 184
   crossword puzzles as, 196
   jigsaw story as, 119
   language Jeopardy as, 191 marking events on map, 64–65
   picture-sorting activity, 56
   for speaking, 39
   strip story as, 103
   for writing, 43
 self-introductions, having students write, 178–179
 semantic mapping, 174, 176 sentence-halves, creating matching cards with, 183
 sequencing, 72, 115
   strip story, 102
 sequencing pictures based on story, 53
 sequential connectors, 54 series of books, 31
 shapes, 85
 shifts, writing stories in, 177 short stories, making bridge from folktales to, 31
 Shulevitz, Uri, 277
Silver Chair, The, 282
 simile, introducing students to, 283 simple grammar in folktales, 13 simple past tense
   irregular verbs, 141
   regular verbs, 135

simple present tense, 137
 simplicity of concepts, 13 simplified input, less language gain from, 101
 skits, see drama
 social issues addressed by folktales, 15 sociocultural issues, generating discussion based on, 94
 Solomon, 113
 solution, problem and, 236–241
 sorting pictures, 54
 sources for material, 277–284
 spacial prepositions, 138, 219
 spacial relationships, 66, 77
 speaking, 78–100
   creating self-access materials for, 39
   using folktales to practice, 18
 specific/general relationships, working on with matching
   cards, 183
 spouse, selection of, Perfect Wife, The, 12 SSR (sustained silent reading), 133 stack of item cards, writing stories
   based on, 163–167
Stone Soup, 83
   Jeopardy clues/answers for, 192–193 picture and cut-outs for retelling, 92
Stonecutter, The, 5–6 stories in this book, levels of, 19 story structure, analysis of, in multilevel classroom, 35
Story Teller's Start-Up Book, The, 279
Storyteller's Sourcebook, The, 279 storytelling
   books about, 279
   Internet conference on, 282 storytelling resources, Internet, 280–281 strategic competence, 202

General index

- strategies
  - modeling, 143
  - note taking, 119
  - prediction, 51
  - summarizing, 199
- stress in pronunciation, working on
  - with repeated refrains, 81
- stress-timed languages, 81
- strip story, 102–109
  - ambiguous, 110–114
  - in multilevel classroom, 33
  - multilevel, for It Could Always Be Worse, 34–35
- strips, creating story from, 115
- Strong Wind*, 108
  - Jeopardy* clues/answers for, 192–193
  - sequencing activity based on, 107
- structure
  - analysis of, in multilevel classroom, 35
  - chronological, 9
  - grammatical, working on with matching cards, 184
  - grammatical elements commonly in folktales, 135
- structure of texts, building awareness of, 224–249
- students, preparing for folktales, 29–30
- summarizing, 68, 114, 251–254
- support
  - different degrees of, 258–259
  - different levels of, 36, 74
- supporting assertions, activity to develop, 273
- suprasegmental pronunciation, 25
  - using folktales to practice, 18
- sustained silent reading (SSR), 133
- Svend, Otto, S., 246
- syllable-timed languages, 81
- symbolic language, introducing students to, 283
- synonyms, working on with matching cards, 183
- tag questions, 191
- task, difficulty of, 168
- tasks to include in story writing, 161–162
- teacher feedback, 174
  - students respond/incorporate, 178
- teacher-fronted activities, less interaction produced by, 101
- Teacher's Jar, The*, 172
- telling stories, by students, from their own cultures, 99
- tense
  - past, regular, 51
  - simple past
    - of irregular verbs, 141
    - of regular verbs, 135
- text structure
  - building awareness of, 224–249
  - cause-and-effect stories, 242–249
  - problem/solution stories, 236–241
  - using chart on to prepare for oral telling, 99
- themes, common, comparing stories with, 260
- Thief, The*, 146
- things to include in story writing, 162
- thinking aloud, 252
- third person, converting first person to, 179
- Thompson, Stith, 280
- Three Billy Goats Gruff, The*, 218
- Thrilling Tale, A*, 235
- Tiger and the Dried Persimmon, The*, 213
- time-ordered story structure, 9
- timeline, 72–77
  - in multilevel classroom, 35
  - using to prepare for oral telling, 100
- Titus, Eve, 6
- Tolkien, J. R. R., 283
- Tortoise and the Hare, The*, using pictures about to generate writing, 154, 156
- tricksters
  - Anansi, 77
  - Hershel, 173
  - Nasrudin, 12
  - Salem, 104

General index

- Turkish stories
  - Nesreddin Hodja, Internet source for stories about, 281
  - Turtle and the Rabbit, The*, 262
  - Types of the Folktale, The*, 279
- unknown words, guessing at, 142–145
- Unmerciful Man, The*, 216
- urban myths, 7
  - By Unanimous Vote*, 140–141
  - Cakes and Cider – An Urban Legend*, 7–8
  - Thief, The*, 146
- Uysal, Ahmet E., 215, 277
- values clarification, generating discussion based on, 95–96
- values education, 4
- variants
  - Cinderella*, Internet sources for, 281
  - comparing/contrasting, 255–272
    - in multilevel classroom, 35, 38
  - Red Riding Hood*, Internet sources for, 281
- Varonis, Evangeline, 101
- Venn diagrams, used as graphic organizers, 269
- verbs
  - irregular, 139
  - regular, 135
- Vernon, Adele, 277
- vocabulary
  - abstract, using folktales to make concrete, 13
  - building/reviewing with concentration game, 182
  - colors and shapes, 85
  - concrete, folktales characterized by, 13
  - dealing with unfamiliar, 142–152
  - farm animals, 90
  - food items, 85
  - furniture, 186
  - helping students to understand meaning relationships, 183
  - house related, 186
  - inferring from context, 142–145
  - preteaching, 26, 54, 64
  - of recurring key words, 81
    - while creating materials, 86
  - reinforcing with repeated refrain, 81
  - reviewing
    - with crossword puzzles, 196–204
    - by students writing with, 163
  - Voyage of the Dawn Treader, The*, 282
- Walker, Barbara, 215, 277
- Welsh mythology, 283
- wh_ questions, 154–155
- Whale and the Sea Slug, The*, 263
- What Hershel's Father Did*, 173
- "When the Tiger Smoked," 229
- Wine for the Feast*, 119
  - jigsaw reading based on, 120–121
- Wise Judge, The*, 221
- Woodcutter's Axe, The*, 40
- words, see vocabulary
- World Folktales*, 278
- World Wide Web, see Internet
- writer/reader relationship, 15
- writing, 153–180
  - beginning with brainstorming, 174
  - book of student stories, 178–180
  - finishing existing stories, 168–173
  - independent, in multilevel classroom, 37
  - introducing with pictures, 154–158
  - from list of items, 159
  - original stories, 174
  - practicing with folktales, 18
  - self-access materials for, 43
  - self-introductions, 179
  - in shifts, 177
  - from stack of item cards, 163–167
- Zemach, Margot, 90, 277