

Index

Page numbers in italic indicate boxed material.

- abstract conceptualization, 6, 6, 7
- accents, listening to, 50–2, 51, 55, 337
- accuracy, 103–4
  - criteria in oral tests, 135
- achievement needs of learners, 275
- achievement tests, 44
- 'accusations' presentation, 14, 15
- action research, 328–9, 329
- activation techniques, 237–8, 238
- 'activator-activated' relationship, 295, 296
- active experimentation, 6, 6, 7
- active learning, 219, 219, 221
- 'active-passive' lesson variations, 217
- adapting activities (listening), 115–18, 115–17, 343
- adjectives, 80
- administration
  - of coursebook activities, 189
  - of tests, 42–4, 43, 337
- adolescents, 290–4, 291, 301, 356
  - teaching preferences, 290–4, 291
- adults, 294–6, 295, 301, 356–7
  - ability to learn, 287–8
- advanced reading, 150–6, 151–4, 345
- adverbials, 79
- adverbs, 80
- age of learners, 173, 286–301, 356–7
  - adolescents, 290–4, 291
  - adults, 294–6, 295
  - children, 288–90
  - learning differences, 273, 286–8, 286
  - learning pronunciation, 56
- ageism, 200
- Alice in Wonderland* reading text, 152, 155
- allophones, 52
- alphabets, 56–7
  - order, 142
  - phonetic, 48
- ambiguity tolerance of learners, 275
- analysis stage, literature teaching, 204–5, 205
- anger, and discipline, 266
- antonyms, 62
- appearance, teachers', 291, 292
- applied science model of teacher learning, 5, 7, 8–9
- appraisal, teacher, 322–4, 322–3, 324, 358–9
- appropriateness of vocabulary, 61, 73
- arbitration strategies, 266, 267
- articles, journal, 327
- aspirations of learners, 275
- assessment, 244–58, 352–3
  - correction compared, 242–3, 352
  - coursebook, 184–7, 186, 193–4
  - criteria 245–6
  - different approaches, 243
  - information as a basis for, 245
  - students' opinions, 291, 293
  - see also* tests
- 'assessor-assessed' relationship, 295, 295
- assistance with practice activities, 23
- association dominoes, 297
- attention
  - in effective presentations, 12, 17
- evaluating lesson effectiveness, criterion for, 219, 221
- fluctuations, 282–3
- attitudes
  - about feedback, 253, 254, 256–7
  - expressed in teaching materials, 199–200
- audio equipment, 190, 191, 195
- 'audio-lingualism'
  - assessment, 243
  - correction of mistakes, 244
- authenticity of reading texts/tasks, 150
- 'authoritarian' v. 'authoritative' discipline, 259, 270
- authoritative demands, as factor in motivation, 279
- authority as characteristic of good teacher, 291, 292
- 'authority-subjects to authority' relationship, 294–5, 295
- automatization, 19, 20
- autonomy in skill learning, 19–20, 20
- auxiliary verbs, 80
- 'availability' of questions, 230
- 'awareness' grammar practice, 84
- background information, reading, 148, 149
- backwash, 44, 135
- 'Bay Window Restaurant' 151, 154–5
- 'Beat the Burglar' text, 153, 155
- book reports and reviews, 164–5, 165
- books as supplementary materials, 190, 190–1, 194
- boredom in practice activities, 23

Index

- 'bottom-up' strategies, 141, 344
- brainstorming, 68–9, 312
- brevity
  - of explanations, 17
  - of informal spoken discourse, 106
- 'burn-out', 318
- caring, importance of, 291, 292
- cassette recorders, 190, 191, 195
- charismatic authority, 260, 261
- checking test answers, 37
- children, 288–90, 297, 299–300, 356
  - ability to learn languages, 286–7
  - learning pronunciation, 56
  - motivation, 288
- choral responses, 228
- 'chunks' of language, see
  - functions; notions;
  - situations; topics
- clarity
  - of instructions, 12, 265
  - of goals, 281
  - of questions, 230
  - of test items, 42
- classroom discipline see
  - discipline, classroom
- classroom interaction see
  - interaction
- classroom research, 327–9, 328, 331
- clauses, 79, 87–8
- 'climbing a mountain' metaphor, 213, 223
- closed-ended cues, 228, 239, 309–11, 309, 310
- cloze activities, 113
  - in tests, 38, 40, 44–5
- 'cognitive code-learning' view of mistake correction, 244
- co-hyponyms, 62
- collaboration, 228, 237, 239–40
  - adolescents, 291, 293
  - large heterogeneous classes, 306, 312–13, 314
- 'collaborative composition' technique, 314
- colleagues
  - feedback from, 322, 322–3
  - sharing problems and successes, 320–1, 358
- collocation, 61
- combining skills, 151
- 'common characteristics' activity, 126, 128
- communication, as lesson
  - evaluation criterion, 219, 220, 221
- communicative approach to mistake correction, 244
- community language learning, 298
- 'comparison' reading activities, 146
- competition as factor in motivation, 279
- complements of sentences, 79, 88
- 'completion' test items, 38, 39
- composition, 167–9, 167, 168, 173, 346
- comprehension question
  - activities, 143–5, 143, 144, 145, 203, 238
- 'compromise' discipline strategy, 266
- 'compulsory plus optional' strategy, 306, 307–9, 357
- computers, 190, 190, 195
- concentration spans, 288
- concepts defined, 3–5
- concrete experience, 6, 6, 7, 64
- conferences, 326, 327
- connotation, 61, 73
- content
  - balance with form, 163
  - of book 1–2
  - of language courses, 175
  - reading texts, 147, 148
  - topic see topics: content
- 'continue the story' activity, 146
- continuous assessment, 245
- control and discipline, 259, 260, 261, 270
  - student preferences, 291, 292
- controlled drills, 84
- 'conventional construct' aspect of lessons, 214
- 'conversation' metaphor, 213, 224
- cooperation and discipline, 260, 261
- co-ordinates, 62
- corporal punishment, 291, 294
- correction of mistakes, 170–2, 246–52, 255–6
  - assessment compared, 242–3, 243, 244, 255, 352–3
  - during fluent speech, 246–7
  - in grammar, 85–7, 340–1
  - in oral work, 246–9, 249
  - in pronunciation, 52–4, 53, 58
  - in written work, 167, 169, 170–1, 250–2, 251–2, 253
- 'counsellor-clients' relationship, 295, 296
- coursebook, 183–9, 193–4, 347–8
  - assessment, 184–7, 186, 193–4
  - coverage, 187, 188
  - for and against, 183–4, 184, 185
  - listening activities, 114, 115–18, 115–17
  - necessity, 183, 184, 185, 193
  - supplementing, 189–91, 190
  - using, 187–9, 188
- courses, teacher development, 325, 326
- coverage of coursebooks, 187, 188
- craft model of teacher learning, 5, 7
- crisis avoidance, 266
- criterion-referenced assessment, 245–6
- 'critical period' for language learning, 287
- 'cue' items, 27
  - see also* closed-ended cues;
  - open-ended cues
- cultural content, 197, 198, 199–200, 208
- decision-making, staff meetings, 321
- decoding, 138, 140
- 'definition guessing' activities, 113
- delivery, grammar presentations, 82, 83
- denotation, 61, 73
- density, of written text, 160
- 'describing' activities
  - pictures, 96–97, 97, 125, 128, 312
  - writing, 165, 165–6

Index

- detachment, of written text, 161
- determiners, 80
- development, teacher, 317, 318–32, 358–9
  - advancing further, 324–9, 328
  - appraisal, 322–4, 322–3, 324
  - practice, reflection, sharing, 318–21, 329–30
- diagnostic tests, 44
- dialogues, 94, 131–2
  - presentation example, 14, 15
- dictation
  - in spelling/pronunciation practice, 58
  - in tests, 38, 40, 70, 72
- dictation-translation tests, 70, 72
- difficulty of lesson, variations in, 217
- discipline, classroom, 212, 259–72, 353–4
  - characteristics, 260–2, 260, 271
  - dealing with problems, 264–6, 267
  - definition, 259, 259, 270
  - episodes, 267–70, 269
  - large heterogeneous classes, 304, 304, 305–6
  - practical hints, 263
  - teacher action, 262–4, 263
- 'discourse composition' practice activity, 84
- 'discrete-point' tests, 44
- discrimination (between words), 58
- discrimination (prejudice), 199–200
- discussion activities, 124–8, 125–7, 343
- distractors, multiple-choice items, 45
- 'do-ability' of test items, 42
- 'do-it-yourself questions' activity, 146
- 'doctor consultation' metaphor, 213, 224
- 'doing your own thing' techniques, 313
- dominoes, 297
- doodles, 297
- drills, 84
- 'eating meal' metaphor, 213, 224
- education, 3
- educational content, 198
- effective learning for all, in large heterogeneous classes, 304, 304, 306
- ego-involvement of learners, 275
- elicitation techniques, tests, 37–41, 38–9
- emotions, talk based on, 129, 130, 131
- encounter stage, literature teaching, 202–3, 203
- 'end', writing as an, 162
- ending group work, 234
- enjoyment, 219, 221, 291, 293
- 'enriched reflection' model of teacher learning, 6–9, 7
- entertainment, 113, 281
- errors in pronunciation, 51–4, 58
  - see also* correction of mistakes
- espoused theories, 4
- essay tests, 39, 41
- evaluation of lesson effectiveness, 219–21, 222, 225
  - see also* assessment
- examinations, 167
- examples, use of, 17, 82
- expectations, listeners' 107, 108
- experiential learning theory, 6–7, 6
- experiential work, 1
- explanations, 16–18, 333–4
  - grammar, 81–3, 82
- explicitness, of written/spoken texts compared, 160
- extended response activities, 114
- extension, in effective questioning, 230
- extrinsic motivation, 276, 277–80, 355
- failure, as factor in motivation, 278
- fairness, 291, 2293
- familiarisation with text, 238
  - in literature teaching, 203–4, 204
- feedback, 18, 212, 242–58, 352–1
  - assessment, 244–6, 255
  - colleagues', 322, 322–3
- correcting oral work, 246–9, 249
- different approaches, 242–3, 243, 244
- group work, 234
- personal attitudes, 253–4, 254, 256–7
- self, 323–4
- students', 323, 324
- on writing activities, 170–2, 346
- written, 250–2, 251–2, 253, 255–6
- feelings, talk based on, 129, 130, 131
- 'film music' activity, 165, 166
- films, 113
- 'finding twins' activity, 313
- first-year teaching difficulties, 318, 329–30
- 'five-minute writing storms', 313
- flow of speech, 49
- fluency, 103, 135, 343
  - correcting oral work, 246–7
  - criteria in oral tests, 135
  - successful practice, 120–2, 121, 123
- 'fluid pairs' techniques, 313–14
- 'football game' metaphor, 213, 224
- foreign accent/pronunciation, 50–1
- foreign language teaching, definition, 4–5
- form/content balance, writing activities, 163
- formal testing, 37
- formative evaluation, 244
- 'free choice' aspect of lessons, 214
- free discourse activity, 84
- 'free sentence composition' activity, 84
- friendliness of teachers, 291, 293
- full-class interaction, 228
- fun in classroom, 291, 293
- functional-notional syllabuses, 178
- functions, 46, 92–3, 93, 100, 341–2
  - combining language segments, 98–100, 99

Index

- task to text, 96–7, 97
- text to task, 93–5, 94
- game-like activities, 281
- games, 190, 191, 195, 281
  - for children, 289–90, 297, 300–1
- gap (slot)-filling activities
  - large heterogeneous classes, 310, 311
  - reading, 146
  - test items, 38, 39, 70–1, 72, 114
- general knowledge content, 198
- ‘giving in’ discipline strategy, 266
- global motivation, 276, 280
- goal orientation of learners, 275
- ‘goal-oriented effort’ aspect of lessons, 214
- goals, see objectives
- ‘good marriages’ text, 154, 156
- ‘good teacher’ characteristics, 277, 284
- grades of assessment, 246
- grammar, 46, 75–89, 339–40
  - definition, 75–6, 87
  - of informal spoken discourse, 106
  - learner activation, 238
  - mistakes, 85–7
  - place in foreign language teaching, 76–8, 77
  - practice activities, 83–5, 84
  - practice scenario, 26, 26–7
  - presenting and explaining, 81–3, 82
  - terms, 78–80
  - of vocabulary, 60–1
- grammatical syllabuses, 178
- grammatical/lexical syllabuses, 178
- group work, 228, 232–3, 234, 239, 351
  - speaking activities, 121
  - student preferences, 291, 293
- guessing activities, 113
- ‘hangman’ game, 24, 25, 31
- ‘hard work’, as student preference, 291, 293
- He Treats them to Ice-cream* text, 207, 209
- heterogeneity
  - of practice activities, 22–3
  - of test items, 42
- heterogeneous classes, 273, 302–16, 357–8
  - ‘compulsory and optional’ strategies, 307–9
  - defining terms, 302–3, 303
  - activities for, 311–15, 315
  - open-ended cues, 309–11, 309, 310
  - problems and advantages, 303–7, 304, 305, 306
  - ‘hidden curriculum’, 199–200
  - ‘holistic’ view of learning, 93
  - ‘how many things ...’ activity, 312
  - ‘Human Rights’ text, 154, 155–6
  - humanistic methodologies, giving feedback, 243
  - humiliation potential of feedback, 254, 256
  - hyponyms, 62
  - ‘ideal school’, activity, 166
  - impact stage, literature teaching, 202–3, 203
  - importance, written/spoken texts compared, 161
  - incomprehensible vocabulary, 148, 149
  - ‘individual awareness’ problems, 304, 304, 306–7
  - individual-referenced assessment, 246
  - individualization, 228, 233–5, 236, 239, 240
    - large heterogeneous classes, 306, 351–2
    - student preferences, 291, 293
  - informal spoken discourse, 106, 108
  - informal testing, 37
  - information gap, 281
  - inhibitions, talking activities, 121
  - in-house staff meetings, 321
  - Initiation-Response-Feedback (IRF), 227, 237
  - input, 1
  - in-service courses, 326
  - instruction sheets, 165, 165
  - instructions, 16–18, 333–4
    - clarity of, 12, 265
  - compulsory plus optional, 306, 307–9
  - ‘instrumental’ motivation, 276
  - ‘integrative’ motivation, 276
  - ‘integrative’ tests, 44
  - interaction, classroom, 212, 227–42, 351–2
    - group work, 232–3, 234
    - individualization, 233–5, 236, 239
    - patterns, 227, 228, 238
    - questioning, 228–32, 229, 230, 231
    - spoken, kinds of, 129–31, 130
    - technique selection, 237, 238, 239–40
  - ‘interaction’ aspect of lessons, 214
  - interactional talk, 129, 130, 131
  - interest
    - fluctuations in, 282–3
    - intrinsic motivation, 276, 280–1, 281
    - large heterogeneous classes, 304, 304, 306, 306
    - practice activities, 23–4
    - questions, 230
    - speaking activities, 120, 121, 122
    - test items, 42
  - interesting lessons, student preferences, 291, 293–4
  - ‘interlanguage’ view of mistake correction, 244
  - interpersonal relationships, and discipline, 262
  - interpretation activities, 114
  - interpretation stage, literature teaching, 204–5, 205
  - intonation, 47, 48–9, 56
  - intrinsic motivation, 276, 280–1, 281, 355–6
  - intuitive imitation, 55
  - IRF (Initiation-Response-Feedback), 227, 237
  - ‘items’ of vocabulary, 60
  - ‘job application’ activity, 165, 166
  - journal articles, 327
  - journal writing, 319
  - ‘keeping in touch’, and discipline, 265

Index

- 'keeping up', 111, 112
 'known words' activity, 69
 Kolb, D.A., 6–7, 6
- language
 components, 46
 grammar presentations, 82, 82
 individual choice, 235
 as topic of study, 198
 written mistakes, 170–1
 written/spoken texts
   compared, 161
- language level
 reading activities, 147, 148
 speaking activities, 120, 121–2
- large classes, 302
see also heterogeneous classes
- learner differences, 273, 274–316
- learning and discipline, 260, 260
- learning and teaching, 4
- learning by heart, 93–5, 94
- learning value of questions, 230
- learnt skill, written/spoken texts
   compared, 161
- lessons, 212, 213–26
 aspects, 213–214, 213, 223–4 discipline, 260, 261, 262, 265
 evaluating effectiveness, 219–21, 219, 222, 225 management, 222–3, 223 planning, 213–26, 349–51
 preparation, 215–16, 215, 224–5
 varying components, 216–18, 217
- 'letter answering' activity, 165, 166
- letters as assessment grades, 246
- level of tasks, and individual choice, 235
- lexical syllabuses, 178
- listening, 103, 105–19, 342–3
 adapting activities, 115–18, 115–17
 classroom, 107–10
 learner problems, 111–12, 111
 practice scenario, 24–6, 25
 real-life situations, 105–7, 105 tasks, 108, 110
 texts, 108, 109–110
 types of activity, 112–114
- lists, syllabuses as, 176
- literature, 175, 198, 200–7, 349
- advantages/disadvantages, 200–2, 201
 specific texts, 206–7, 206, 207, 208–9
 teaching ideas, 202–5, 203, 204, 205
- 'long gap-filling' activity, 114
- long turns, speaking activities, 129, 130, 131
- 'longer response' listening
   activities, 113
- looking, and listening, 107, 108
- management of lessons, 222–3, 223, 262
- 'marketplace' activity, 314
- marking of tests, 42
- students' preferences, 291, 293
- 'marriages' text, 154, 156
- matching activities, 310, 311
   in test items, 38, 40, 70, 71–2
- materials, 175, 177, 183–96, 347–8
 assessment of coursebooks, 184–7, 186, 193–4
 large heterogeneous classes, 304, 304, 306
 necessity of coursebooks, 183, 184, 185, 193
 supplementary, 189–91, 190
 teacher-made worksheets and workcards, 192–3, 193
 using coursebooks, 187–9, 188 writing of, 327
- meaning relationships, 62
- 'meaningful drills' practice activity, 84
- meanings
   grammar, 76
   reading, 138, 139–41
   vocabulary, 61–2
- means, writing as a, 162
- memorizing, 64–7, 65, 66
- 'menu' metaphor, 213, 224
- metaphors
   activity example, 313
   lesson, 213–14, 213, 223–4
- method sharing, 327
- methodology, 262
- 'teaching' compared, 4–5
- 'mistake detection' activities, 113, 146
- mistakes, see also correction of mistakes
     in grammar, 85–7
     in pronunciation, 51–4, 58
 mixed ability classes, 273, 302–3
see also heterogeneous classes
- mixed syllabuses, 178
- modal verbs, 80
- mode, lesson variations in, 217
- models of teacher learning, 5–9, 6, 7
- monitor theory of mistake
   correction, 244
- monologue test items, 39, 41
- mood, lesson variations in, 217
- moral content, 198
- morphemes, 79, 88
- mother-tongue use, speaking
   activities, 121, 122
- motivation, 273, 274–85, 355–6
 adults', 295, 295–6
 background thinking, 274–6, 274 characteristics of motivated learners, 275
 children's, 288–90, 297
 compared to aptitude, 274, 274–5
 in a disciplined classroom 260, 261, 262
 extrinsic, 276, 277–80
 fluctuations in interest, 282–3 global, 276
 integrative vs. instrumental,
   276 intrinsic, 276, 280, 281
 as lesson evaluation criterion, 219, 219, 221
 in reading, 148, 149
 in speaking, 120, 121
 teacher's responsibility, 276–7
 in testing, 37
- 'motivator-motivated'
   relationship, 295, 295–6
- mouth position, and
   pronunciation, 53, 53
- multiple-choice tests, 38, 39, 44, 45
   vocabulary, 70, 71
- multi-strand syllabuses, 178
- 'names' games, 297

Index

- names of students, teachers' knowledge of, 291, 293 narrative writing, 165, 165
 necessity of coursebooks, 183, 184, 185, 193
 need for achievement, 275
 'news reports' activity, 165, 166
 'no overt response' listening activities, 113
 'noise', 106
 non-native teacher as model, 56 non-repetition, in informal spoken discourse, 106, 108 norm-referenced assessment, 246
 note-taking, 114
 notional syllabuses, 178
 notions, 46, 92–3, 93, 100, 341–2
   combining language segments, 98–100, 99
   task to text, 96–7, 97
   text to task, 93–5, 94
 nouns, 80
 numbers activities, 28–30, 29
 'obeying instructions' activity, 113 objectiveness, 176, 238, 281 and discipline, 260, 261–2 and interest, 281
 objects of sentences, 79, 88
 observation, 6, 7, 322–3, 322, 323
 'odd one out' test items, 70, 71 older learners, see age of learners
 open-ended cues, 228, 239, 240, 281
   for large heterogeneous classes, 306, 309–11, 309, 310, 357–8
 'optional' tasks, 306, 307–9 options, multi-choice items, 45 oral skills, see speaking organisation, of written text, 161
 'organisation' lesson variations, 217 overhead projectors, 190, 191, 195 own activities, designing, 312–15, 315, 358 own experience, as topic content, 198 paraphrasing, 114
 participation
   large heterogeneous classes, 304, 304, 307
   speaking activities, 120, 121, 122
 'passing it round' techniques, 314
 'passive possibilities' activity, 314 peer correction, 171–2, 254, 257
 'people description' activity, 165, 166 perception, effective presentations, 12
 permanence of written text, 159–60 perseverance of learners, 275 personal reflection, 319–20, 358 personal stories, 165, 165
 personalization of tasks, 281, 306
 phonemic alphabet, 48
 phonic reading, 142
 phonology, 47–8, 48
 phrases, 79, 88
   as assessment grades, 246
 pictures, 190, 191, 195, 289, 300
   brainstorm activity, 312
   description activities, 97–8, 125, 128, 312 differences, 126, 128 play-acting, 281
   see also role play plays, 132
 political content, 198, 199
 portfolio assessment, 245 positive feedback, 254, 247 positive task orientation of learners, 275 posters, 190, 191, 195
 postponement strategies, 266 power hierarchies, 254, 256
 'power' v. 'authority', 259, 270
 practice activities, 10, 19–32, 334–5
   characteristics, 21–4
   designing own, 312–15, 315 function, 19–20, 21
   grammar, 83–5, 84
   for heterogeneous classes, 307
   sequence and progression, 27–32, 29 and test techniques, 24–7, 25–6, 336
 practice
   definition, contrast with theory, 3–4 praise, 254, 257
 'prediction' activities, 58, 148, 149
 'preface' reading activity, 146
 prefixes, 62, 73
 prejudices, 199–200
 pre-learning, and practice activities, 22
 preparation giving explanations, 16–17
   lesson planning, 215–16, 215, 224–5 prepositions, 80
 'pre-question' reading activities, 146
 presentations, 10, 11–18, 333–4
   effective, 11–13
   examples, 13–15, 14
   explanations and instructions, 16–18
   grammar, 81–3, 82
   group work, 234
   in in-house staff meetings, 321 of topics and situations, 90–1, 91
   of vocabulary, 63–4
 pressure from teachers, 279 problem sharing, 320 problem-solving activities, 114, 127, 128 procedural syllabuses, 178–9
 'process description' activity, 165, 166 process of group work, 234 process syllabuses, 179 professional development, see development profiles, as assessment grades, 246 progression of practice activities, 27–30, 29 pronouns, 80
 pronunciation, 46, 47–59, 337–8
   age in learning, 55, 56, 286 concepts, 47–9, 48
   controversial issues, 54–6, 55 errors, 51–4, 58
   improving, 52–4, 53, 54

Index

- in informal spoken discourse, 106
- intuitive learning of, 55, 56
- listening to accents, 50–1, 51
- model, 55, 55–6
- and spelling, 56–8, 58
- of vocabulary, 60
- purpose
  - of listener, 107, 108
  - of reader, 148, 149
- questioning by teacher, 228, 229–32, 229, 230, 231, 239, 240, 351
- open- and closed-ended, 310, 310–11
- questions
  - listening, 114
  - reading comprehension, 143–5, 143, 144, 145
  - test, 38, 39
- quiet, and discipline, 260, 261, 265
- rationale for course, 3–9
- reading, 103, 138–58, 344–5
  - advanced activities, 150–6, 151–4
  - assumptions about, 138
  - beginning, 141–2, 142, 156–8, 156–7
  - in classroom interaction, 236
  - comprehension activities, 143–6, 143, 144, 145, 146
  - improving, 147–50, 148, 149
  - nature of, 138–41, 138, 139, 140
  - for teacher development, 324–5
- reading aloud activities, 58, 237, 239
- ‘reading words’ presentation, 14, 113–15
- real-life listening, 105–7, 105, 342
  - in the classroom, 107–10
- ‘recall and share’ techniques, 312–13
- redundancy, 106
- reflection, 319–20, 358
- reflective model of teacher learning, 5, 6–9, 6, 7
- reflective observation, 6, 6, 7
- relationships, talk based on, 129, 130, 131
- reliability of test items, 44
- remembering vocabulary, 64–7, 65, 66
- repetition
  - of explanations, 17
  - in informal spoken discourse, 106, 108
  - need for, listening problems, 111, 112
- ‘re-presentation of content’
  - reading activity, 146
- research, classroom, 327–9, 328, 331, 359
- ‘resource-users’ relationship, 295, 296
- respect, 291, 293
- ‘responding’ reading activities, 146
- ‘response to listening’
  - interaction, 236
- responses to listening, 113–14
  - ongoing, 107, 108, 110
- rewriting
  - corrections, 171
  - test items, 38, 40
- rhythm, 47, 48, 56
- ‘role-based culture’ aspect of lessons, 214
- role play, 96–7, 130, 131–3, 281, 344
- rules, grammatical, 82, 83
- ‘satisfying’ aspect of lessons, 214
- scanning, 113, 147, 148
- scores, and testing, 37
- self-access, 228, 233
- self-appraisal, 323–4
- self-assessment, 245
- self-discipline, 264
- ‘seller-buyers’ relationship, 295, 296
- ‘sentence completion’ test items, 71, 72
- sentence, parts of, 79, 87–8
- ‘sentences’ test items, 70, 71
- sequence of practice activities, 27–30, 29, 334–5
- sexism, 199–200
- sharing problems and successes, 320–1, 358
- ‘shopping list’ activity, 126–7, 128
- ‘shopping’ metaphor, 213, 224
- ‘short response’ listening activities, 113–14
- short-term memory, in effective presentations, 12
- short turn, 130
- simulations, 132, 281
- ‘situational’ motivation, 276
- situational syllabuses, 178
- situations, 46, 90–1, 91, 93–100, 341–2
  - combining language segments, 98–100, 99
  - speaking activities, 129, 130, 131
  - task to text, 96–7, 97
  - text to task, 93–5, 94
- skill, theory, 19–20, 20, 30
  - assessment, 243
- ‘skill’ lesson variations in, 217
- skimming, 113
- slot-filling exercises, see gap-filling exercises
- social problems, 198
- social orientation of coursebooks, 200
- ‘soliloquy’ presentation, 14, 15
- songs, 113
- sounds, 47–8, 48
  - listening problems with, 111, 111
- speaking, 103, 120–37, 343–4
  - correcting mistakes in, 246–9, 249
  - discussion activities, 124–8, 125–7
  - fluency, 120–2, 120, 121, 238
  - functions of topic and task, 122–4, 123
  - other kinds of interaction, 129–31, 130
  - problems, 121–2, 121
  - role play, 131–3
  - successful activities, 120–2, 122
  - testing, 133–5, 134, 344
  - written texts compared, 159–61, 160, 172, 345
- speech, parts of, 80
- speed
  - individual choice, 235

Index

- reading activities, 147, 148
 speech, 111, 112
 written/spoken texts
   compared, 161
 spelling and pronunciation, 56–8, 58, 338 practice scenarios, 24, 25, 30, 31, 313
   of vocabulary, 60, 312
 staff meetings, 321
 standard language, of written text, 161
 stems in multiple-choice items, 45 ‘stir-settle’ lesson variations, 217 stories, 113, 289, 300
   personal, 165, 165
 strategies for word-learning, 67 stress (anxiety), and tests, 36 relieving, 42–4, 43
 stress (pronunciation), 47, 48, 56
 structure-based practice
   activities, 84
 structures
   grammatical, 75
   presentation of, 82, 82
   student activation techniques, 237–8, 238 student opinions, 290–4, 291
   feedback from, 323, 324
 student–teacher relationships, 294–6, 294 subject matter, see topics ‘subjective’ test items, 44 subjects of sentences, 79, 88 success, as factor in motivation, 278 success-orientation of practice
   activities, 22
 success sharing with colleagues, 320 suffixes, 62
 suggestions, in-house staff meetings, 321
 summarising activities, 114, 146
 summative evaluation, 244–5 superordinates, 62
 supplementary materials, 189–91, 190, 192–3, 193, 194–5 survival, professional, 318, 329–30 syllabuses, 175, 176–82, 346–7
   characteristics, 177
   definition, 176–7, 177
   for heterogeneous classes, 307
   types, 177–9
   using, 179–81, 180
 ‘symphony’ metaphor, 213, 224 synonyms, 62
 taking things personally, 265–6 talk, teacher, 228, 240 outside the classroom, 291, 294 talking time, learner, 120 target language use in speaking
   activities, 121, 122
 tasks in language-learning
   activities, 96–7, 97, 98, 341
   authenticity, 150
   coursebook, 188–9
   functions of, 122–4, 123, 343
 ‘task’ motivation, 276
 teacher
   appearance, 291, 292
   appraisal, 322–4, 322–3, 324 assistance, practice activities, 23 development, 319–21
   a good, 277, 284, 355
   learning models, 5–9, 6, 7 reactions to learner responses, 230
   training, 321
 teacher-made worksheets and
   workcards, 192–3, 193
 teacher–student relationship, 291, 293, 294–6, 295 teaching definitions, 4–5 process, 10
   technique sharing, 327
 Teevee literature text, 207, 208–9 tempo, lesson variations in, 217 terminology, grammar, 82, 82 tests, 10, 33–45, 245, 335–7
   administration, 42–4, 43
   basic concepts, 35–7, 36
   designing, 41, 42
   elicitation techniques, 37–41, 38–9
   grammar, 85
   for heterogeneous classes, 308
 motivation to do, 279 reasons for, 33–4, 34
 speaking, 133–5, 134, 344
 vocabulary, 69–72, 70–1, 339
 text in language-learning
   activities, 93–5, 94, 341
   authenticity, 150
   comprehension questions on, 143–5, 143, 144, 145 in coursebooks, 187–8
   see also literature
 textbook see coursebook
 textbook exercises, 236 theatre visits, 113 theory
   definition, contrast with practice, 3–4
 threats, and discipline, 266
 ‘ticking off items’ activity, 113 time schedules, 177
 tiredness, 111, 112
 ‘title’ reading activity, 146 tolerance of ambiguity, 275 ‘top-down’ strategies, 141, 344 topic, 46, 90–1, 90, 93–100, 341–2
   combining language segments, 98–100, 99
   content, 175, 197–211, 348–9 different kinds, 197, 198, 207–8
   literature, 200–7, 201, 203, 204, 205, 207
   underlying messages, 199–200
   functions of, 122–4, 123, 343
   individual choice in, 235 lesson variations in, 217
   syllabuses based on, 178
   task to text, 96–7, 97
   text to task, 93–5, 94
 trainee learning from course, 8–9
   notes, x–xi
 trainer
   notes, xi–xii, 333–59 role of, 7–8 training
   definition, 3
   teacher, 321
 ‘transaction’ aspect of lessons, 214

Index

- transactional talk, 130
- transformation test items, 38, 40
- translation, 62
  - listening activities, 114
  - test items, 38, 40
  - vocabulary tests, 71, 72
- 'transmitter-receivers' relationships, 295, 295
- true/false activities
  - listening, 113
  - test items, 38, 39
- 'twin finding' activity, 313–14
- underlying messages, 199–200, 349
- understanding
  - effective presentations, 12
  - listening problems, 111, 111–12
  - literature teaching, 203–4, 204
  - reading, 138, 139–41, 150–1
- university study, 325
- validity
  - of practice activities, 21–2
  - of test items, 42, 44
- values, underlying course content, 200
- 'variety show' metaphor, 213, 223
- variation
  - of lesson components, 216–18, 217
  - of situation, etc. in speaking activities, 129, 130, 131
  - of topics and tasks, 236, 281
- verbalisation in skill learning, 19, 20
- verbs, 79, 80, 88
- vicarious experience, 7, 7
- video, 113, 190, 191, 195
- 'view description' activity, 165, 166
- visibility of speakers, 107, 108
- visuals, 281
- vocabulary, 46, 60–74, 338–9
  - definition, 60–2
  - grammar of, 60–1
  - incomprehensible, 148, 149
  - of informal spoken discourse, 106
  - practice scenario, 26, 27
  - presenting new, 63–4, 63, 64, 238
  - remembering, 64–7, 65, 66
  - suggested activities, 67–9
  - testing, 69–72, 70–1
- volume
  - in practice activities, 22
  - written/spoken texts compared, 161
- warmth of teachers, 291, 293
- 'wedding' metaphor, 213, 224
- 'what have people said' activity, 313
- words, 79, 88
  - as assessment grades, 246
  - formation, 62, 73
  - remembering, 64–7, 339
- workcards and worksheets, 156, 156, 157, 192–3, 193, 236, 348
- world knowledge content, 198
- writing, 103, 159–74, 313, 345–6
  - composition process, 167–9, 167, 168, 173
  - for content/form, 163
  - correcting assignments, 304, 304, 306
  - evaluating activities, 164–6, 164, 165
  - feedback, 170–2, 250–2, 251–2, 253, 255–6, 346, 353
  - learner activation, 238
  - as means/end, 162–3, 163
  - for personal reflection, 319
- written text
  - spoken text compared, 159–61, 160, 172
  - stimulating, 164–6, 165
  - teaching materials, 327
  - teaching procedures, 162–3, 163, 173
- younger learners, see age of learners
- 'zero-content' topics, 197, 198, 208