CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521596890 - Teachers in Action: Tasks for In-Service Language Teacher Education and Development
Peter James
Index
More information

Index

NOTE: Tasks are in bold print. Worksheets are in italics.

action research 14–15
  aims and nature of 15
  see also investigating advantages and disadvantages of a topic 81, 196 agreeing, or disagreeing 41, 83–5, 237 Applying our learning: a checklist (47) 282 looking back and looking ahead (5.5) 135–8, 210–14, (46) 281
Are we speaking the same language? (1.7) 43–5, 170, (12) 238 articles
  advantages and disadvantages (6.39.1) 218 publishing (5.8) 146, 287 assumptions, examining 53, 68, 76–9, 192–3 attitude 7
  see also teachers' attitudes audio-diaries 115
audio-recordings 115
autonomy, of teachers 12

beliefs, examining 76–9, 192–3 Benefits of investigating in class: teachers' perspectives (4.1) 101–2, 200–1, (33) 262–3 bibliographies 63–6, 158–9, 182–4 sample for teachers (6.20.2) 182–3 suggestions for trainers (6.20.1) 182 blackboard/whiteboard 26 books recommending and sharing 63–6 reviews (2.6, 3.8) 16, 66, 97 bottom-up approach 141, 152
  defined 46
brainstorming 81

case studies
  extract from a formal (6.32.1) 203–4 framework for mini 117 Fig. 4.2 ineffective in-service training (6.3) 153–4 teacher classroom research project (6.4) 154–6 cassette recorder 26
change
  defined 46
  extracts from a conversation about professional (6.36) 210–13 and teacher learning 9–10 change agents, defined 46 change in education 45–7
  promoting 45–7
classroom research see investigating collaborative learning 161 community of learning 17 comprehensible input, defined 92 concepts mapping 38–40, 235
  sample list (6.10.1) 164
  use of teaching 43–5
  using key 39
conceptual frameworks (6.10) 38–40, 164–5, 235 confidence 12, 72–4, 101 connections, making 133–5 consciousness raising 11, 54–5
Consulting our learners (1): planning administering and evaluating a simple questionnaire (4.4) 110–13, 201–2, (35) 266–7 Consulting our learners (2): What did you learn today? (4.5) 113–16, 202–3, (37) 270–1 cooperation 11
correction
  as inhibiting learning (2.1) 16, 18 techniques for oral mistakes (3.6) 16–17 see also errors
coursebooks, examining 97 critical awareness 11, 68 critical incidents
  defining 52
  examining 52–4, (6.15) 174–6, 244

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521596890 - Teachers in Action: Tasks for In-Service Language Teacher Education and Development
Peter James
Index
More information

curriculum example of a school curriculum information leaflet (6.11.2) 166–9 extract from an official Spanish curriculum document for secondary education (6.11.3) 169–70 official 41, 42–3
  whole school 9

data collection classroom 100, 201–2
  informal interviews as 119–21 methods 102–5, 264–5 selecting and evaluating methods 102–5, 201–2 see also recording debate
  implications in wider social context 97–9, 198–200 motion in 98, 198, 199–200 preparing for a formal 97–9 Debate: understanding the wider implications of a topic (3.9) 97–9, 198–200 decision-making evaluating learning to inform 126 skills 6, 10
decisions
  evaluative 6
  interactive 6
  planning 6
developmental error, defined 92 dialogue, between trainers and teachers 25 diaries (2.7) 16, 18, 67–9, 115, 184–5 discussion based on 70–2 prompts (6.21) 184–5
  sample of classified extracts (6.22) 185–6 Diploma for Overseas Teachers of English (DOTE) examination (RSA/UCLES) 146 disagreeing, or agreeing 41, 83–5, 237 discourse, academic 43–5, 91–2 discussing 20, 135
Do we agree that...? (3.4) 83–5, 197–8, (30) 259 drawing 109

education, purpose of 8–9 educational change see change in education Effective educating, teaching and learning in the language classroom
  What are my priorities? (2.3) 57–8, (20) 247
  What are our priorities? (2.2) 54–6, 176–7, (19) 246 effectiveness, of teaching 10, 12 enabling skills 7, 64
English
  use in teaching 40–3, 166–70, 236 use in training programme 25 English language teacher education, action research in 14 environment
  creating a suitable 25
  wider educational 144–7 errors (3.7) 16–17
  and correction (2.4) 16–17, 192 pupil's attitudes to, questionnaire (4.4) 16 teacher's attitudes and assumptions (3.1, 3.9) 16 developmental error 92
  overgeneralization error 93 evaluating 6, 10, 12
  defined 125
  see also formative evaluation Evaluating informal presentations (50) 285 evaluating learning 17, 125–47 Examining critical incidents (2.1) 52–4, 174–6, (17) 244 examples, using 116
experience
  sharing 122–4
  teachers' own previous 30 experiential learning 20, 126 Kolb's cycle 12, 89
experimenting 12, 20
experimenting in class 122–4
  moral dimension 122
  motivation 122
Experimenting in class (4.8) 122–4, 205–7, (40) 274
exploring
  teachers' professional knowledge 28–49
  a topic 16, 75–99

'fastwriting' 86
feedback
  summary feedback letter 87–9
  trainer's 86–9
files/ring-binders 26
Find someone who (3.3) 32, 82–3, (29) 258 fluency (3.7) 16

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521596890 - Teachers in Action: Tasks for In-Service Language Teacher Education and Development
Peter James
Index
More information

foreign language teaching, curriculum document (6.11.3) 169–70 formative evaluation, self-directed as teacher development 126 formulaic patterns, defined 92 fossilization, defined 92

Getting to know each other (1.1) 29–32, 225–8 focus on me as a teacher (3) 160, 228 questionnaire (1) 225–6 something about us (2) 227 glossaries 44, 239
  of specific terms 92–4
goals
  clarifying 41
  of teaching 41–2
group, professional development as a 32 group discussion, mindmap summary 137–8 groups, and sub-groups 17, 43 groupthink 41

Has this task helped me/us to learn? (5.1) 127–8, (42) 276
High-priority topics for the group to investigate (2.1) 52–4, (18) 245
How do I learn? (1.2) 32–3, (4) 229

ice-breaking 29–32, 82–3 ideal self 73
ideas 12
  organising, clarifying and developing 85–9
  sharing 60–3
identifying topics 16, 50–74, 127–8 identities see teachers' identities images, exploring teachers' 35–8, 234 imperative form 21
'In her element' (6.19) 180–1
in-service, defined 151 in-service teacher education, effective 2–10 in-service training, case studies of ineffective (6.3) 153–4 individual learners informal interviews with 119–21 profiles of 116–19
Informal interview with a learner (4.7) 119–21, (39) 273 innovation
  analysing 47–9, 171
  defined 46, 48
  promoting 47–9, 171–4
Innovation in our schools: How can we help to promote it? (1.9) 47–9, 171–4, (16) 243 input 20
  defined 93
instructions, giving in class 81 interaction in the classroom 3 Fig. 1 interactive skills 6
interlanguage (3.7) 16
  defined 93
International Association of Teachers of English as a Foreign Language (IATEFL) 145 interviewing skills 119–21 interviews
  informal (4.7) 119–21, 273 semi-structured, defined 120 structured, defined 120 intuitions, verifying 101 investigating 7, 14–19
  an overview (1.3) 33–5
  benefits of 101–2
  defining 33
  guidelines for writing a formal report about (6.39.3) 221–2 key features and benefits of 15–19 learner autonomy, sample (6.5) 157–60
  Possible stages of investigating (6, 7) 162, 231–2, 233 practical example of 15, 16–17 Fig. 5 stages of (6.8) 162
investigating in class 14, 16, 34, 100–24 teachers' perspectives 101–2 investigating cycle 13 Fig. 4; 28 Fig. 1.1; 50 Fig. 2.1; 75 Fig. 3.1; 100 Fig. 4.1; 125 Fig. 5.1; 148 Fig. 6.1
It's quite obvious the teacher's a gardener: exploring teachers' metaphors (1.4) 35–8, (8) 234

jigsaw reading activity 95
journals, classroom 67–9

Keeping a classroom diary (2.7) 67–9, (25) 253 knowledge see teachers' professional knowledge language acquisition, defined 93 language learning

  compared with language acquisition 93
  defined 93
  strategies 128–30

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521596890 - Teachers in Action: Tasks for In-Service Language Teacher Education and Development
Peter James
Index
More information

language teaching task-based materials 19–20 use of English in 40–3, 236 learner autonomy
  reading extracts for 95–6 sample sequence of tasks, activities and options for investigating (6.5) 157–60 learner profiles (4.6) 116–19, 272 example of a baseline (6.32.2) 205 learners consulting 110–13, 113–16
  passive 152
learning
  active 20, 57
  evaluating 17, 125–47
  list of ways of professional learning for teachers (6.7) 161
  strategies 128–30, 177–8, 213–14 transmission model of 152 ways of 32–3
learning society 144
lecture, by trainers 26 lesson, recording information about a 60–3, 122–4 lesson plan 41, 123–4, 275 example (6.33.2) 206–7
Lesson plan sheet (4.8) 123–4, 206–7, (41) 275 libraries, class 63–6 life-long learning 9, 11 listening, reflective 85, 197–8 listening skills 55, 85, 197–8 logs, classroom 67–9

Making sense: reviewing and finding connections (5.4) 133–5, (45) 280 mapping, concepts 38–40, 235 Mapping the whole (1.5) 38–40, (6.10) 164–5 materials 12
  learner-produced 119
  workshop 90
Meister, Sandra 154–6
mental maps 38–40, 235
metalanguage 43
metaphors, exploring teachers' (6.9) 35–8, 162–4, 234 methodological skills 6 methods, shortlists of priorities 6 mindmap summary, of group discussion 137–8, 214 mini case studies 117
mistakes see errors

mother tongue
  informal interviews in learner's 121 status of teacher's 25 motion, debating 98, 198, 199, 200
motivation
  and correction techniques 16, 18
  experimenting in class 122
  teachers' 135
My best lesson/teaching ideas (2.5) 60–3, 180–1, (22) 250

National Curriculum 168–9

open forum, on reading 63–6 oral mistakes, and correction techniques 16–17, 192
Our current professional practice (2.4) 59–60, (21) 248–9
Our English teacher will explain: role-play (5.8) 146–7, (52) 288
Our experience of the training programme (2.8) 70–2
Our learners in action: using photographs of learners (4.3) 105–9 outcomes 20, 22n
output 20
overgeneralization error, defined 93 overhead projector 26

parents
  communicating and cooperating with 6 explaining work to 146–7, 288 pedagogic manifesto 57–8 example of (6.17) 177–9 performance gap 101, 116
Personal glossary of key terms related to educating teaching and learning (1.7) 43–4, (13) 239 personal theories 4–5, 10–11, 28, 37, 53, 57–8
  defined 54
  relating to public theory 5, 52 writing about 85–9
photographs, using (4.3) 16, 18, 105–9 from local context 108
  to introduce a topic 109
plagiarism 77
plain English 22
Planning an informal presentation (49) 284 planning decisions 6
portfolio
  defined 138

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521596890 - Teachers in Action: Tasks for In-Service Language Teacher Education and Development
Peter James
Index
More information

stages of a 138 Fig. 5.2
see also teacher portfolios Possible stages of investigating 162, (6, 7) 231–2, 233
poster
advantages and disadvantages (6.39.1) 217–18
producing a (5.8) 145–6, 286 Preparing a debate: instructions (3.9) 97–9, (32) 261 presentation skills 7, 140–3 framework for developing teachers' 141 Fig. 5.3
general strategies for developing (6.38.1) 215–16 presentations characteristics of effective (6.38.2) 216 effective (6.39.2) 219–20
informal 140–3, 284–5
evaluating 140–3, 285
planning 140–3, 284
presenting results 24
primary teachers, task-based materials 20 principles 54–8
practice contrary to 101, 116 priorities
establishing shared 54–6
examining 52–4
listing 51
personal 57–8 procedures 20
Producing maps of key concepts related to our training programme (9) 235 professional development 11–12 as a group 32
strategies for 137
of trainers 26
professional literature, using 63–6 professional practice current 59–60
future 135–8
sharing 82–3
public talk
advantages and disadvantages (6.39.1) 217
giving a (5.8) 145, 286 public theory 5, 12
academic discourse of 91–2 pupil profiles 138
pyramid discussion 43

questioning 41
questionnaires
characteristics of an effective 111–12, 268–9 on pupils' attitudes to mistakes and correction (4.4) 16 summary of advantages and disadvantages of classroom (6.30) 201–2 using 110–13

ramification 97n
reading 7, 20
example of completed review sheet (6.20.3) 183
jigsaw reading activity 95
targeted 94–7
as a way of learning 63–6
Reading survey: review sheets (2.6) 63–6, 182–4, (23, 24) 251–2 real people 116–19
recording classroom data, methods 115 information about a lesson 60–3, 122–4 results 19
records of achievement 138 reference skills, developing 44, 239 reflecting 8n, 10, 20, 32, 45–7, 53, 67–8, 70, 113, 127, 135, 166–70 Reflecting on the nature of change in education: factors which will help us to change and/or innovate (1.8) 45–7, 171, (15) 242
What helps us to change? (1.8) 45–7, 171, (14) 240–1 reflective listening 85 report writing (5.8) 146, 287
advantages and disadvantages (6.39.1) 218
guidelines for formal about investigating (6.39.3) 221–2 resources 12, 148–222
list for the trainer 149–51 necessary 25–6
results, sharing 19, 24
review of book (2.6, 3.8) 16, 66, 97 ring-binders 26
role-play (5.8) 146–7, 288 routines, formulaic 92
RSA/UCLES, Diploma for Overseas Teachers of English (DOTE) examination 146 rules, establishing ground 25

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521596890 - Teachers in Action: Tasks for In-Service Language Teacher Education and Development
Peter James
Index
More information

scheme of work 41
school curriculum, information leaflet example (6.11.2) 166–9 selecting 20, 51
self-disclosure 67
self-esteem 8, 12, 72–4, 186–91 practical recommendations for enhancing learners' (6.23.2) 187 self-image 73
sentence completion (6.34) 208–9, (44) 279 sequences of tasks 21
sharing learning 140–7
  wider educational environment 144–7
Sharing our learning (1): giving informal presentations (5.7) 140–3, 215–16
Sharing our learning (2): joining forces in the wider educational community (5.8) 144–7, 217–22, (51) 286–7 skills 5–7 Fig. 3
  see also teachers' professional skills social constructivism 4, 6, 17 personal interpretation of (6.2) 152–3 social context 4 Fig. 2 social skills 6
Spanish, extract from secondary education curriculum document (6.11.3) 169–70 specialist terms 91–4 sample 92–3
strategies
  analysing, evaluating and selecting 129–30, 131–3 defined 128n
stress, strategies for fighting 74, 188–91 sub-groups 17, 43
subject matter skills 5–6 suggestions 25–6
summarising key points (40) 16
summary feedback letter 87–9
supervisors see trainers support 17
syllabus 41
systematicity 18

Talking about real people: writing a learner profile (4.6) 116–19, 203–5 Targeted reading: key extracts (3.8) 94–7 task format 21–2
  background information 21 pedagogic procedures for 21 preparation for 21
  task aims 21
tasks 19–22, 75
  adapting 20
  combining 22
  further reading 22
  more options 22
  selecting 20
  sequences of 21
  using the 20–1
teacher classroom research project, case study (6.4) 154–6 teacher development, defined 152 teacher education
  defined 152
  method: 'approach, design and procedure' model (6.10.2) 165 reflective model for (6.10.3) 165 social constructivist model 152–3 teacher educators see trainers teacher learning, and change 9–10 teacher portfolios 138–40
  benefits of 139
Teacher portfolios (5.6) 138–40, 215, (48) 283
teacher training
  defined 151–2
  learning needs 151
teachers
  autonomy 12
  collaborating with trainers and other colleagues 17 improving practice 17–18 as individuals 2
  as learners 89–91
  as protagonists 15
  as reformers 19
  as social beings 3–4
  use of tasks by 21n
teachers' attitudes 7–8, 12 to change in education 45–7 teachers' expectations, of the training programme 30 teachers' feelings about their work 7–8 teachers' identities 2–4 teachers' perspectives, on investigating in class 101–2, 200–1 teachers' professional knowledge 4–5
  exploring 28–49
teachers' professional skills 5–7, 10
teamwork 140
Ten characteristics of an effective questionnaire (4.4) 111–12, 119, (36) 268–9

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521596890 - Teachers in Action: Tasks for In-Service Language Teacher Education and Development
Peter James
Index
More information

terms
collecting key (3.7) 92–4 key (6.1) 151–2
related to language acquisition (31) 20 related to a specific topic 91–4
use of teaching 43–5
theorising 7, 20, 39, 54–6 thinking, ways of 35–8, 234 tides of change, defined 46 time, lack of 18
top-down approach 151–2
defined 46
topics
advantages and disadvantages of 81, 196 breaking down into manageable units 51
exploring 16, 75–99
high-priority 16, 52–4, (18) 245 identifying 16, 50–74, 59, 127–8 sample list to investigate (6.18) 179 small-scale and realistic 18 suggestions for 51
trainer's shortlist 60
trainers
danger of imposing topics 51 investigating model for 26 participation in worksheet responses 24 professional development of 26
sharing 26
use of tasks by 21n
training programme
discussion based on diaries 70–2 favourite aspects 130–3, 208–9 sample list of components (6.35) 133, 210 transfer 92
defined 93
tutorials, general recommendations concerning (6.37) 215 tutors see trainers

understanding 11, 79–81 Understanding key terms related to a specific topic (3.7) 91–4, (31) 260 video materials

published 109
teacher-produced 109
visual data 109

Ways in which we can learn together (1.2) 32–3, (5) 230
We can do it!
Practical recommendations for … (2.9) 72–4, (27) 256
Self-esteem, us and our learners (2.9) 72–4, 186–91, (26) 254–5 wh-questions 79–83
What do I understand by the topic 'x'? (What? Why? Who? etc.) (3.2) 79–81, 193–6, (28) 257
What do we already do in school or class regarding the topic 'x'? Find someone who… (3.3) 82–3, 196, (29) 258
What I most like about our training programme is… (5.3) 130–3, 208–9, (44) 279
What we agree about and what we disagree about (1.6) 40–3, (11) 237
Which data collection method? (4.2) 102–5, (34) 264–5
Which learning strategies are helping us? (5.2) 128–30, (43) 177–8 whole-learner development 8
Why, why, why? Examining our assumptions and beliefs about a topic (3.1) 76–9, 192–3
Why teach English? (1.6) 40–3, (6.11), 166–70, (10) 236
'Why? Challenge' 76
worksheets 22–5
access to 23
comparing responses to 23–4 example of completed (6.6) 160 explaining intended use of 23 list of 223–4
practical uses of 24–5 purpose of 22–3
recording results on 19
signing and dating 24
time needed for 23
understanding 23
using the 23–5
Workshop: experiencing teaching ideas as learners (3.6) 89–91 workshops 89–91
teaching materials 90
writing 85–9
Writing about a topic: organising, developing and clarifying my ideas (3.5) 85–9 Writing a learner profile (4.6) 116–19, (38) 272

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org