

FIGURE 19.7. Clay-mineral cements. (A) Kaolinite showing the “book” morphology typical of cements. The scale bar is 10 microns long. The large blocky surfaces are quartz overgrowths. (B) Illite, showing fine filamentous structures. The scale bar is 10 microns long. Photomicrographs courtesy of Tim Lowenstein.