Fitted logistic, probit (dashed line), and linear regression models for the insect data. The ◇ marks indicate the empirical mortality rates at each of the six levels of concentration of the insecticide.