

TABLE 10 Web table 10.

ID	Tomb Name	Date	Location	Description	Inscription	Physical Remains	Other Finds	References
1	002	175–256 CE	cemetery outside the western city wall, in periphery ca. 273 m west of Tower 19 and 186 m from central mound	hypogeum covered by a low tumulus; long dromos led to a rectangular door, with steps leading into chamber; chamber had benches along the walls (0.30–0.40 m wide and 0.20–0.30 m high) and a cornice; fifteen loculi with vaulted ceilings were cut in three walls and on either side of the entrance; pieces of a green glazed bathtub-shaped sarcophagus were found in the tomb, decorated on the box with reliefs of busts/masks between engaged columns, and a relief of a mask on the cover	–	–	–	Toll 1946, 12–13, 25 (pl. I, XXXIII, fig. 5)
2	003	Roman?	cemetery outside the western city wall, in periphery ca. 360 m from city wall, 450 m from central mound	hypogeum covered by a low tumulus; long dromos led to a rectangular door, with steps leading into chamber (3.10 x 2.70 x 3.5 m); chamber had benches along the walls (0.30–0.40 m wide and 0.20–0.30 m high) and a cornice; sixteen loculi with vaulted ceilings were cut in three walls and on either side of the entrance; remains of three terracotta coffins were found in several areas (the middle of the chamber, in loculus 12, and in pieces all over the tomb) remains of a wooden coffin in Loculus 1; the circumference of the tumulus is 8 m, and it rested on a low wall of 0.70 m	–	remains of nine individuals in the central chamber	in central chamber: storage jar, two glass bottles, green glazed vase with three handles, bronze object; green and tan woolen bands	Toll 1946, 12–13, 26 (pl. VIII, XXVII, XXVII, fig. 3)

(cont.)

TABLE 10 (cont.)

ID	Tomb Name	Date	Location	Description	Inscription	Physical Remains	Other Finds	References
3	004	200–256 CE	cemetery outside the western city wall, in periphery opposite Tower-tomb 23, 324 m from city wall and 360 m from central mound	hypogeum covered by a low tumulus; long dromos (1.07 m wide) with thirteen steps coated with plaster led to stone door (1.42 x 0.75 m) that could be locked; chamber (3.0/4.10 x 3.75 m) had benches along the walls; alternating broad and narrow loculi (fourteen) with vaulted and gable-shaped ceilings; one loculus was unfinished; chamber was probably completely plastered and shows no wear on the coating of walls, some prepared coating was left lying on the floor; tomb may have only been used for two or three burials before it was abandoned; inscription above the cornice of Loculus 4 and one above Loculus 8; Loculus 1 contained a terracotta sarcophagus of which part was found in the central chamber; remains of wooden coffins were found in the loculi; the circumference of the tumulus is 12 m; E–W oriented	Greek, text not available	–	piece of purple woolen textile	Toll 1946, 19, 27 (pl. XXII, XXVII–3, XXXII, fig. 3)

4	031	Roman?	cemetery outside the western city wall, opposite of main gate north of Tower D	hypogeum covered by a low tumulus; long dromos led to a rectangular door, with steps leading into chamber; chamber had benches along the walls (0.30–0.40 m wide and 0.20–0.30 m high) and a cornice; fifteen loculi with vaulted ceilings were cut in three walls and on either side of entrance; E–W oriented	–	–	on floor in chamber: green glazed vase, two small glass bottles, glass bottle with a human face; necklace? (carnelian and agate beads), two gold leaves, jasper gem, bronze coin of Commodus (177–192 CE)	Toll 1946, 12–13, 63–64, pl. II, XLIX
5	044	1–200 CE	cemetery outside the western city wall, opposite of main gate north of Tower D	hypogeum covered by a low tumulus; the chamber has a central pier decorated with engaged columns between two corner pilasters; eleven loculi in side walls with alternating gabled and vaulted ceilings; narrow bench that seems unfinished ran alongside the walls; dromos of this tomb blocked access to Tomb 49; one side was without loculi possibly because it interfered with this other tombs; N–S oriented	–	–	glazed vase in chamber	Toll 1946, 15–16, 83, pl. II, XVIII, LVII; Toynbee 1971, 221
6	050	150–250 CE	cemetery outside the western city wall, opposite of main gate north of Tower D	hypogeum covered by a low tumulus; entrance was framed by two pilasters and a lintel; the chamber had a central pier decorated with engaged columns between two corner pilasters; sixteen loculi in the walls had gabled ceilings; the tumulus rests on low wall; NNW–SSE oriented	–	–	green glazed jar in chamber	Toll 1946, 17, 89, pl. II, XI; Toynbee 1971, 220

(cont.)

TABLE 10 (cont.)

ID	Tomb Name	Date	Location	Description	Inscription	Physical Remains	Other Finds	References
7	Catacomb 6	100–256 CE	cemetery outside the western city wall, west of Tomb 4	hypogeum with ten gabled and two vaulted loculi	–	–	–	Toll 1946, 18, pl. II
8	Cremation 1	165–256 CE	cemetery outside the western city wall, in the central mound between the stones of Tower-tomb D, in its northwest corner	jar burial; coarse ware broad jar with handle covered by a coarse ware bowl	–	cremation	–	Toll 1946, 5
9	Cremation 2	165–256 CE	cemetery outside the western city wall, in the central mound between the stones of Tower-tomb D, in its northwest corner	jar burial; coarse ware broad jar with handle	–	cremation	–	Toll 1946, 5

10	Cremation 3	165–256 CE	cemetery outside the western city wall, in the central mound, 1.40 m to the north of tumulus of tomb	jar burial; coarse ware broad jar with handle (0.24 m high and 0.29 m in diameter) and light-greenish slip	—	cremation	—	Toll 1946, 6
11	Stele 1	116–256 CE	original location unknown, reused in plaster floor of Artemis Temple	rectangular gypsum stele (0.72 x 0.48 x 0.11 m) with depiction of an aedicula in low relief; the triangular pediment is supported by two Doric columns; a reclining figure with outstretched right arm occupied the upper third of the aedicula and was crowned by an incised disc; rosette to the right of frame, and an unidentified feature on the left	Latin, not translated (inscription mentions age and dedicator)	—	—	Baur & Rostovtzeff 1929, 49; Downey 1977, 94, pl. XXII; Parlasca 1982, 18, pl. 19.1