Unemployed laborer

Years of education: 10

Income this year: INR 50,000

Total wealth (all assets): INR 20,000

Age: 28

You are an unemployed day laborer and work odd jobs like an electrician or plumber. Your skill level is low because you dropped out of high school to work and help your mother make ends meet. Because of a slowdown in the construction industry, you were laid off two months ago and have not found another job. You do not have health insurance. You would like to find steady work and settle down.
