

FIGURE 7.31. Flaser (A), wavy (B), and lenticular (C) bedding associated with current ripples, and symmetrical and asymmetrical wave ripples. From Reineck and Wunderlich (1968b). Mud is black, sand is white. Actual examples from North Sea tidal flats are shown to the right. Ripples are about 10 mm high.