

The politics of language - Ralph Fasold

In defence of Singlish, an argument that Singlish should not be suppressed:

<http://www.tim-richardson.net/letters/singlish.html>

An argument that "good English" should be encouraged over Singlish: SPEECH BY PRIME MINISTER LEE HSIEN LOONG AT THE LAUNCH OF THE SPEAK GOOD ENGLISH MOVEMENT 2005, HDB HUB, 13 MAY 2005

<http://www.goodenglish.org.sg/SGEM/speech/pm.htm>

A discussion about Ebonics by an eminent linguist and expert on the topic: 'Ebonics Notes and Discussion,' John R. Rickford, December, 1996.

<http://www.stanford.edu/~rickford/ebonics/EbonicsExamples.html>

New Words: How do they get into the Oxford English Dictionary?

<http://www.askoxford.com/worldofwords/newwords/newwordsdict/?view=uk>

James Crawford's Language Policy Web Site - Crawford is a strong opponent of making English official in the U.S.

<http://ourworld.compuserve.com/homepages/JWCRAWFORD/>

US English web site - US English is an organization that lobbies for making English the official language of the U.S.

<http://www.us-english.org/>