

Figure 2.5. A schematic representation of the long-term, global carbon balance between the atmosphere, land and ocean. Flow (1) represents CO_2 consumption from the atmosphere by weathering and the transport of HCO_3^- to the sea. Flow (2) is the return of CO_2 to the atmosphere by precipitation of CaCO_3 in the oceans.

