

Programs 'TRACE3D' and 'FRONTS3D'

- Purpose and Disclaimer

These Windows-based programs are designed primarily to solve the computer exercises provided in the book and also to expose the user to the important features of trajectory based fluid flow simulation and inversion. It is NOT meant for commercial applications. The authors or the Texas A&M University assume no responsibility for use of this program and provide no warranty for the results.

- Steps for Installing/Running the Programs

1. Double click on the Setup Executable
2. Follow the steps to install the program.
3. It is recommended to install the program with a simple path name, for example, C:/TRACE3D.
4. The installation process will generate an 'icon' for the program.
5. Double click on the 'icon' (or use the Start menu) to start the program.
6. Please refer to the User Manual for detailed instructions