Thinking of a Hypothetical BLL Course

- a. Write one general goal for the course, two course objectives associated with the goal, and four learning outcomes associated with the objectives. When writing teaching objectives and learning outcomes, remember to keep Figure 5.3 handy, as it contains a list of measurable verbs for each of the six cognitive domains within Bloom's taxonomy. Post your statement list on a blog.
- b. Read and comment on the statement posted by another reader or other readers.
