

Chapter 5 links

The UK National Fraud Authority website includes reports and statistics regarding fraud (including online frauds) in the UK: www.homeoffice.gov.uk/agencies-public-bodies/nfa.
Fraud and internet crime in the UK can be reported to the ActionFraud website at: www.actionfraud.police.uk.

The website of the Anti-Phishing Working Group (APWG) provides useful information about phishing rates and scams, as well as a crimeware map and other resources: www.antiphishing.org.

'Stop. Think. Connect' is a website designed to help internet users stay safer online and was created by a coalition of private companies, as well as non-profit organisations and government organisations. It includes information on research and surveys, as well as general advice for internet users www.stophinkconnect.org.

The US Federal Bureau of Investigation provides practical tips on avoiding fraud on their website www.fbi.gov/scams-safety/fraud/internet_fraud/internet_fraud.

The Internet Crime Complaint Centre (IC3) is a US governmental website which accepts complaints from victims: www.ic3.gov/default.aspx.

Journal links

Computer Fraud and Security (Elsevier):

www.elsevier.com/wps/find/journaldescription.cws_home/405876/description#description.

Journal of Financial Crime (Emerald):

www.emeraldinsight.com/journals.htm?issn=1359-0790&PHPSESSID=ebvm4ps1ol1r8vpmfa67l1qpi7.