

FIGURE 13.65. Typical effect of faults and tilting on channel-belt avulsion. Channel belts are indicated by lines. Numbers are locations of avulsion in chronological order. Downthrown sides of faults are indicated by triangles. A full explanation is given in Bridge (2003). From Bridge (2006).