

Figure 10.2. A schematic diagram of the stagnant molecular layers near the air–water interface. Fugacity in the bulk atmosphere and concentration in the water are indicated by f^a and $[C]$, respectively. Chemical equilibrium at the air–water interface is described by Henry's Law, where $K_{Hf} f_{sat}^a = [C^{Sat}]$.

