

Figure 53.1: Root mean square of sea surface elevation derived from the Topex/Poseidon and ERS data (Ducet 2000). This plot illustrates the variability of meso-scale motions at surface showing the presence of eddies in regions of strong density gradient and velocity shear. Courtesy of Pierre-Yves Le Traon from CLS.