

FIGURE 17.4. Glacial erosional features: (A) a U-shaped valley with truncated spurs, Denali, Alaska; (B) a hanging valley with waterfall, Resurrection Bay, Alaska; (C) the Finger Lakes of New York State (photo from NASA); and (D) Watkins Glen, a gorge with waterfalls formed by headward erosion of a tributary valley, Finger Lakes region of New York State.