Years of education: 8

Income this year: 2,50,000 (2.5 Lakh)

Total wealth (all assets): 6 Lakh

Age: 48

You are a private driver and work for a wealthy family. You have been working for them for 20 years and have a stable income and job security. You work in the city; your family is based in your native village. You send them money regularly and have helped build a permanent house. You take care of your immediate family – wife and two school going children; and pitch in money for you family farm – jointly worked by your two brothers. You hope to retire in ten years and return to your native. You would like to educate your son in college and marry off your daughter.
